Spuds on the Run

Chris Ralphs decided to shift to Dunolly from the Yarra Valley 18 months ago for a quieter lifestyle, however that hasn't necessarily been the case.

Chris, and his partner Adele, started up the "SPUDS ON THE RUN" business six months ago and it's keeping them very busy.

They are community minded and recently catered for the Dunolly Golf Club fundraising day, donating all their takings from the day to the Golf Club.

Chris and Adele have catered for events which include the 150th Anniversary of the First Cricket Eleven at Edenhope, the Maryborough Car Bike and Tattoo Show and even a private memorial. They cater for any private functions and special events and welcome enquiries.

You can find "SPUDS ON THE RUN" every Monday night outside the Dunolly Railway Hotel with spuds ready from 5 pm and offering several delicious topping options. Contact: 0456 179 135

New Pharmacist for Dunolly

Most of the Dunolly locals were rather dismayed to hear that our pharmacist, Sam and his partner Phoebe disappeared from town without a word to anyone. However, a new pharmacist, Mofreh Kedis, has now taken over the chemist shop and is full of ideas for new stock according to customers' demand. As it is, the shop is fully stocked with most items that one would expect from a chemist shop.

Mofreh comes here from Charlton, where he ran a pharmacy for the past six years.

We extend Mofreh and his family a warm welcome and trust that they will enjoy living in Dunolly.

Dunolly Bar and Bistro

This venue has recently reopened. It has been refurbished; the bar now being at the entrance, the kitchen has updated appliances, there are new furnishings and, best of all, a delicious new menu. It's a great place for breakfast, lunch or dinner. Personally recommend it.

ROSIE'S RAMBLE

The Easter bunny must have brought my wheelie bins in this week- unless they came in by themselves. Thank you to the bringer-in .

I had an interesting oven-event when I was baking a guinea pig (cake) for CWA last week. There was too much mixture in the nut loaf tin I was cooking it in and it ran over onto the bottom of the oven. When I came to investigate the burning smell, I found the dough had fallen on the element and was in flames. Not a good idea to put water on it, so I turned off the oven, lifted the little fire out with metal serving spoons and dumped it in the sink. Problem solved. Simple!

The horse that disappeared at Easter had been sheep-napped! Barbara, the sheep from Goldsbrough, likes to go for a wander in the bush and came home that night with the horse in tow.

Great news for those of us who are getting on a bit—scientists have discovered that older people replace worn out brain cells as quickly as young people. Yay !!

I had a better look at the Welcome sign on the house in Maryborough - it is actually made from wrought iron. Still a lovely idea .

Cricket's boss, James Sutherland, has the full support of the board. Watch it Jimmy — remember Barnaby .

Lady witness to the fire in Trump Tower in New York saw smoke "bellowing" from the windows — It was probably the Donald reacting.

I have heard of a new grammatical term to go with phrases, verbs and others we learned at school. It is the dangling modifier – that annoying "cooking on the stove, my friends will enjoy the soup" thing that really brings out the pedant in so many people. Glad it has a name .

LETTERS TO EDITOR

Dear Editor,

As one of your local Members of Parliament and the Minister for Agriculture, I'm a great advocate for programs and initiatives that encourage young people to take up farming as a career.

Our Government is backing the next generation of Victorian farmers through the Upskill and Invest Young Farmers Scholarship Program.

Since this program began in 2015, Young Farmers Scholarships have helped a diverse range of young people grow their careers in agriculture by upskilling, implementing new on-farm initiatives and boosting their professional networks.

Over the course of the program, 38 young farmers working across the agriculture supply chain have received scholarships which have helped fund their study in areas such as primary production, business management, research and technology.

It's my firm view that young people in rural areas should have the opportunity and support they need to reach their full potential, and that's why our Government is backing dedicated young farmers through the Young Farmers Scholarship Program.

Up to $10,000 is available for farmers and farm workers aged 35 years or under to help them with professional development and career progression.

This includes $5,000 for study, backed by a further $5,000 to invest on-farm or in professional development activities to help put new skills into practice.

Applications close on the 24th of April, 2018.

I urge The Welcome Record readers to find out more by visiting vic.gov.au/youngfarmers.

'Flamenco Meets Jazz Tour'

We are so fortunate that our small town of Dunolly is included in the debut Australian tour of the celebrated Spanish flamenco guitarist Paco Heredia.

Australian jazz fusion guitarist Bart Stenhouse will be partnering up with Paco for the April tour which has already enjoyed sell-out seasons in Toowoomba, Sydney and Brisbane.

After the detour to Dunolly and Melbourne, the duo will head off to Tasmania. This whirlwind tour means that a great many towns are able to enjoy the finest of world renowned musicians.

At $25, our admission is very reasonable - the tour is $40 for many the other venues. This is due to the generosity of the performers, and to the Dunolly Theatre company for donating accommodation.

Bart has performed in Dunolly previously and was so warmly received, he formed a relationship with our appreciative audience. We are indeed fortunate to have such talent come to us.

Sunday April 15th at 2pm at the Dunolly Town Hall.

Dunolly Independent Living Units Project: Update from the Auxiliary

One thousand Community Surveys are being distributed through our district this week, thanks to the generous assistance of the Post Offices in Dunolly, Bealiba and Tarnagulla. A special thanks, too, to the Dunolly RTC where volunteers folded 800 of the surveys (without a paper cut!). When you complete your survey, please drop it into the RTC when you head down the street or are next in Dunolly.

Please remember that an online option is also available on <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/3NTKT2J>

Two community consultations to explore current and future housing needs among frailer, older district residents will be held in the Dunolly Town Hall on Wednesday, 18th April at 2.00pm and again at 6.00pm. Our consultant, Christine Nunn, will convene the discussion. We are keen to hear from people of all ages, whether affordable and secure housing is a current issue or something you are thinking about for the future for yourself, a friend or a family member.

Travels with Cynthia

Among the many pleasurable experiences we three girls encountered was an incident on the French Riviera. After spending a few days in Cannes, we took to the road to hitchhike further south and had barely left the town centre when a large and shiny car stopped, driven by a most elegant Frenchwoman. She was horrified when we explained where we were heading and the means we were using. She invited us to go with her to her villa where she would make us refreshments. The villa turned out to be quite luxurious and perched on top of a cliff overlooking the Mediterranean.

Then our lovely hostess invited us to stay the night and said she would drive us some of the way the next morning. Of course we were thrilled with that invitation. By standing on the balcony you could dive straight into the blue, blue sea.

The bedrooms had trundle beds which slid out from under each bed.

In the morning we were served croissants and strong coffee with cream, and then our benefactress gave us lunch packages and drove us to a bus station, urging us to be sensible and catch the bus. To please her we did so, but only to the next town and once more took the road for new adventures.

DUNOLLY MEDICAL PRACTICE

2018 FLU VACCINES NOW AVAILABLE!

We are pleased to announce that the 2018 government funded seasonal influenza vaccine is now available at the Dunolly Medical Practice.

Annual vaccination is the most important measure to prevent influenza and its complications. Vaccination is recommended before the onset of each influenza season. The period of peak influenza circulation is typically June to September for most parts of Australia. While protection is generally expected to last for the whole season, optimal protection against influenza occurs within the first three to four months following vaccination.

It is free for the following groups:

- All adults aged 65 years and older
- All children aged 6 months to <5 years (new Victorian government funded program)
- People aged 5 years and over who have a medical risk factor that increases their risk of complications from influenza; for example, severe asthma, lung or heart disease, low immunity or diabetes.
- All Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander persons aged 6 months to < 5 years or 15 years and older.
- All pregnant women anytime during pregnancy

If interested, please ring us at 5468 1104 to set up an appointment.

The Central Goldfields Shire Have your Say campaign is now live and the community is encouraged to share their thoughts and ideas.

The feedback provided will inform a refresh of the Council Plan and other future strategic planning work.

To make it quick and easy for residents to get involved, a postcard has been produced that features space on the back for residents to provide responses to the following questions:

- What do you love about the Shire?
- What do you imagine for the future of the Shire?
- What specific results would you like to see?

Postcards have been distributed across the Shire with feedback boxes for residents to return their postcards to us.

Residents can also have their say online via the following link: <https://bit.ly/2GcNFX2>

The Have your Say campaign will run throughout April. Feedback will be made available to the community in May/June.

Listening Posts

Central Goldfields Shire Administrators Noel Harvey, Karen Douglas and Hugh Delahunty conducted listening posts in Talbot, Dunolly, Bealiba and Carisbrook this week as part of the Have your Say campaign.

2018 ANZAC APPEAL – DUNOLLY-BEALIBA SUB-BRANCH RAISING VITAL FUNDS FOR OUR HEROES

RSL Appeals organisers at all Sub-Branches throughout Victoria are gearing up for the 2018 ANZAC Appeal, from 1st April.

Richard Gale, President of the Dunolly-Bealiba Sub-Branch, is confident the local community will once again generously support the RSL's annual ANZAC Appeal.

"Our RSL volunteers, many of them veterans, are ready to offer a variety of ANZAC Appeal badges. The high level of energy and commitment shown by our Sub-Branch volunteers as they raise the much-needed funds, is truly humbling," said Richard Gale.

"Each and every volunteer is determined to get into the community and not only sell ANZAC Appeal badges, but to share their stories and experiences. I would also like to thank the members of our local community who so generously support the ANZAC Appeal and our veterans."

According to RSL Victoria's Appeals Manager, Peter Smith OAM, "The funds raised through the RSL's ANZAC Appeal enable us to deliver much needed assistance to those men and women who have served our country and who now need our support."

"Funds from the ANZAC Appeal go to a variety of services and programs for veterans who need help and is tailored to their individual needs and circumstances. It can include assistance such as medical bills, emergency home repairs, food vouchers and relief from social isolation. Providing premium welfare services is a top priority for RSL Victoria, and the ANZAC Appeal makes this happen." Mr Smith added.

"Each RSL Sub-Branch in Victoria plays a vital role within their community and for many veterans, the Sub-Branch is the social and welfare hub that they know and love. I encourage members of the community to engage with their local RSL, attend a commemorative ANZAC service, and to show that they care by buying and wearing an ANZAC Appeal badge with pride this April."

You can purchase an ANZAC Appeal badge from your local Woolworths, Officeworks, RSL Sub-Branch or from volunteer collectors in your local community. You can also donate online at anzacappeal.com.au

We have a great workshop this coming weekend. Lauren Murray is coming up from Melbourne to share her upcycling skills with us. We will be working with men's shirts and how you can transform them into wearable outfits for women. It is a free workshop and starts at 1.30pm at the Hub. If you have a spare man's shirt at home, bring it along to work on. We are in dire need of sharp scissors, so bring them along if you have them.

Here is Lauren's story: Hello my name is Lauren Murray and I like to think of myself as a frugal fashionista. I have sewn as long as I can remember, remodelling scraps, old linen and worn-out clothing into creations for my barbie dolls. This love continued throughout my teens, customising op-shop finds to make my look unique, and led me to study fashion design and pattern drafting. I ran a small dressmaking business for a few years and while it was great making garments out of lovely new fabrics, I really enjoy the challenge of remodelling garments for clients to make them something a bit new and different. When I started growing my family I made and sold children's garments online and at markets using a mixture of new and vintage fabrics and finishes. I love a good bargain, the contrast of luxury, with a vintage or retro touch and the creativity of DIY which drives my ongoing interest in up-cycled fashion. I look forward to meeting you all at the workshop.

Re:Cycle Runway Show

The Re:Cycle Runway is getting really close now, and all the folk involved are madly finishing off their runway outfits and wearable art exhibits. We will also have all sorts of recycled art and crafts in the exhibition. The runway event is on the evening of Friday, 20th April. If you are exhibiting or wearing an outfit on the runway I will get in touch with you to talk about what time to come to the hub and what you will need to do on the night. Please give me a ring on 0418 875 453 if you have any questions.

If you don't have a model for the event you can always take the mystery bag challenge and put your outfit on a mannequin or dressmaker's dummy for the exhibition.

The best advantage apart from being involved in a fun community event is that anybody that goes in the Mystery Bag Challenge or puts a recycled artwork in the Exhibition gets to come to the Runway Show for the discounted cost of $10 and if you are a model in the parade you get in for free! There is still time to get involved, ring me if you want to join in. We will be having supper, wine & champagne & non-alcoholic fruit punch; these are complimentary and there will be a door prize.

All of the entrants get a Participation Certificate. Remember - 6.30pm on Friday 20th April; tickets at the door.

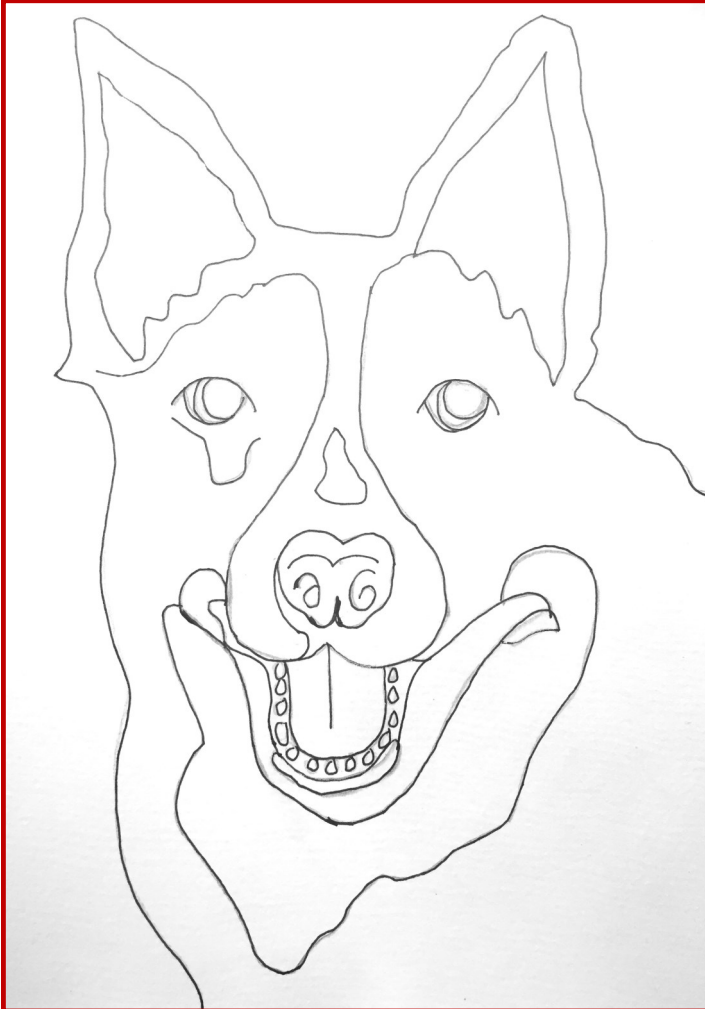

Arts Hub Weekly

We still have Tai Chi on Tuesday, Thursday & Friday evenings with Jason. Mosaics on Monday mornings and Kids Hub Club will return on Wednesday 2nd May. We will start this year's fun with "How to construct a pre-made wooden car". The woodworkers at the Neighbourhood Centre have been making us some wooden cars. Mike Hiley will come and show the kids how to put the cars together, then we can decorate them.

Campervan

A most interesting vehicle arrived in Dunolly over Easter. It was a very quaint looking campervan which resembled a converted Landrover before they became SUVs. Very compact, it contained the bunk, cupboards, a stove and sink and believe it or not solar panels on the roof.

Retired couple Bev and John and bulldog Hattie travel all over the country in this quaint looking little home. They had just spent a few months in Cooktown and were visiting relatives in Dunolly. They told us they own a block in Moliagul but I doubt they are ready yet to settle down.

Small town Tarnagulla commissions Climate Change Study

The town of Tarnagulla has been successful in applying for a Virtual Centre for Climate Change Innovation Grant through the Department of Environment, Land, Water and Planning (DELWP).

The $50,000 grant will be used to conduct an intensive study of the issues faced by the town with regards to climate change and research ways of becoming more resilient during extreme weather events.

The study will have a strong focus on the social, economic and physical impacts of challenges related to climate change.

The Tarnagulla Alternative Energy Group (TAEG) is in collaboration with RMIT Centre for Urban Research's Climate Change and Resilience group who will be conducting the study, DELWP and the Tarnagulla Action Group.

Paul Davis from the Tarnagulla Alternative Energy Group said local residents, organisations and government agencies will be consulted throughout the process of the study to gain a better understanding and assist in creating a needs-based model.

"The aim of the study is to investigate ways to increase resilience directly related to our town and tailor appropriate action for our local community.

"We are taking a proactive approach by investigating our strengths, issues and challenges now so that we can be strong as a collective. This way, we can be prepared for unknown situations that arise down the track.

"We (TAEG) believe that the results of the study will provide a good example for other small, rural communities in planning their own local approaches.

"We hope the study will promote community wellbeing, strengthen relationships with relevant organisations and increase overall preparedness of the town during times of need," Mr Davis said.

Support for dealing with Dementia

With an estimated 250 people developing dementia each day, the condition, which is the second leading cause of death among Australian, is expected to affect more than 1.1 million people by 2056.

The condition, which affects thinking, behaviour, the ability to perform everyday tasks and brain function enough to interfere with the person's normal social or working life, has no cure.

However, dementia Australia CEO, Maree McCabe is reminding individuals, families and carers that the right support, information and help can make a life-changing difference after a diagnosis.

"There is a perception in the community that nothing can be done following a diagnosis of dementia," Ms McCabe said.

"However, with an estimated 425,000 Australians living with dementia this year alone, which is expected to soar to 536,000 people by 2025 and more than 1.1 million by 2056, it is vital people understand the right support can make the world of difference to everyone impacted by dementia.

"These figures are cause for concern and we do know we need to make sure we continue to invest in more research to try to find ways to better treat the condition, or find a cure. But in the meantime, we must also make sure the huge number of Australians impacted by dementia are accessing good quality, appropriate support and services.

"Good support and services can help people cope better with the uncertainty and changes that come with dementia.

"They can help people reconnect and re-establish relationships with partners, families and friends which can be so important for their emotional well-being.

"Social engagement and keeping physically and mentally active are also key in contributing to better health and lifestyle outcome following a diagnosis of dementia."

Dementia Australia operates in all states and territories and provides services in regional and remote areas throughout Victoria, including Bendigo, with support provided across the Loddon Mallee region, including Central Goldfields Shire.

It is the national peak body for people of all ages living with all forms of dementia, their families and carers.

It offers counselling services for people living with dementia, their families and friends, early intervention programs which provide information, advice and peer support for people in the early stages of dementia.

For more information and support, contact the National Dementia Helpline on 1800 100 500.

Tarnagulla & District Golf Club Inc

EASTER CUP 2018 REPORT:

The clubhouse was full of excitement as over 45 entrants and 40 supporters attended the first event of the season, the annual EASTER CUP, for the Tarnagulla & District Golf Club. The EASTER CUP is a three ball Ambrose format and is a fantastic way to start off the golfing season. The fun format sees teams of three combine to play their best shots over nine holes. This format allows for a diverse group of entrants from a youthful nine year old, in Jeremy Cassar, to a very youthful yet seasoned ninety year old, in Betty Higgs.

Despite the lack of rain in recent months, the maintenance done by the many volunteer greenkeepers was evident. The fairways had a nice run to them and the sand scrapes played true and straight.

Despite the strong competition there was a fun atmosphere. Teams could be heard telling jokes, laughing at any wayward shots, or just jovially chatting away. Many of the entrants sought solace from the sun by wearing the new Tarnagulla & District Golf Club hats.

After finishing their round, the golfers were treated to a feast of cakes, sandwiches and slices for afternoon tea. Whilst the entrants and supporters enjoyed the sumptuous afternoon tea, 96 year young Pixie McNamee presided over the raffle and was kept busy selling tickets. Local legend John Shay took centre stage pulling out the raffle tickets. The raffle winners had big smiles as they selected from the array of a dozen spectacular prizes, donated by our fantastic supporters. A further Thankyou to John Lavery (Publican of the Golden Age Tarnagulla Hotel) who donated a lovely putter as a raffle prize.

WINNERS: On the day the combination of Brian McNamee, Cathy Hill and Daniel McNamee proved too strong. Cathy, despite only being an occasional golfer, provided a consistent straight drive when her partners would slice or hook their shots.

RUNNERS-UP: Close in second place were Mitch Burman, James McNamee and Will McNamee. They had a good round but were left ruing a few missed putts.

THIRD PLACE: In third place were Garry Harwood and Meredith Harwood. The pair showed significant improvement from last year, no doubt from the practice provided by their annual memberships.

NEAREST THE PIN: In the nearest to the pin competition on the 3rd hole, Brad Ryan's early effort proved too deft.

LONGEST DRIVE: Whilst the longest drive, held on the 5th hole, changed leaders throughout the day. In the end a mammoth drive by Will McNamee was longest by over twenty metres.

As the entrants and supporters left the clubhouse they could be heard preparing teams for next years Easter Cup or organising their calendars for the next event on Sunday 22nd April, the 'BIG CAT SCRAMBLE' (a Pairs event where the best drive is taken by the pair and thereafter, both in the pair count their own shots. A great fun event. We can arrange partners, clubs, balls, tees and bags. $15 per person or free to T&DGC members.) (Memberships are $50 - or $80 with voting rights at the AGM.) If you don't play golf, come along and enjoy the Afternoon Tea. It's such a good chance to meet others and have a good chat. Everyone is welcome. Just come! It's such a friendly afternoon.

Thank you to the many entrants, supporters and volunteers who helped make the day so special.

Report confirms four cases of deadly disease in 2017

With four meningococcal causes diagnosed in the Loddon Mallee region, which includes the Central Goldfields Shire, in 2017, the Victoria Government has extended the free meningococcal vaccination program. Until December 31, 2018 year 10 students will have free access to the vaccine in order to protect teenage Victorians against the deadly disease.

The vaccination program was launched to combat increasing number of meningococcal disease across Victoria compared with five years ago. The majority of these cases are for increasing numbers of the previously 'W' and 'Y' strains of meningococcal debases.

State-wide, 89 cases were diagnosed in 2017, resulting in six deaths, compared to 78 cases in 2016 and 56 cases in 2015. Department of Health and Human Services figures reveal there were 26 cases diagnosed in regional Victoria in 2017, four of which were in the Loddon Valley region.

As of 16th March, eight cases have been diagnosed throughout Victoria in 2018. Health experts predict this number will continue to rise as the peak season for meningococcal disease approaches.

Young people aged 15 and 16 years old are at a greater risk of carrying and spreading meningococcal bacteria, as one in five carry it in the back of their throats and can pass the bacteria to family members and friends.

The best way to protect young people, and the wider community, is through the free and safe vaccination on offer. One in 10 cases of meningococcal disease proves to be fatal with death occurring with 24-48 hours of diagnosis.

Two in every 10 people who survive the disease are left with a permanent disability such as brain damage or loss of fingers, toes or limbs.

"The meningococcal ACWY vaccine safely protects against four strains of meningococcal disease, the increasingly common 'W' and 'Y' strains as well as the 'A' and 'C' strains," deputy chief health officer Dr. Brett Sutton said.

"Ensuring eligible young people are vaccinated is essential in protecting the wider community from this deadly disease."

Symptoms of meningococcal disease include limb pain, sudden high fever, headache, vomiting, stiff neck or sore muscles, sometimes following by a red or purple rash.

The disease can progress very quickly and can lead to death or permanent disability. Up to 10 percent of infected people die, even if they are treated with the right antibiotics.

The bacteria can only survive outside the body for a few seconds and can only be passed from person to person by close and prolonged household or intimate contact, for example intimate kissing.

The vaccine is a safe and effective way to protect against meningococcal disease. The free program is available until December 31, 2018 at scheduled school immunisation sessions, local council community immunisation sessions and from a GP.

To find out more about meningococcal disease or the free vaccine program visit:

<https://www.betterhealth.vic.gov.au/health/conditionsandtreatments/meningococcal-disease>

MARYBOROUGH LIONS HATCH A CRACKER OF AN EASTER MARKET

While kids and many adults unwrapped chocolate eggs, Maryborough Lions Club hatched a cracker of a market on Easter Sunday. With close to 50 stalls lining sections of Nolan and Alma Streets and selling a wide range of wares, in just the club's second market in the town centre, it was a resounding success.

The Maryborough Lions CBD Tourist Market coincided with the Australian Veterans Cycling Council's Highland Society Criterium, drawing a large influx of visitors to the town. A new attraction was music by Greg Joseph and Ray Johnson who strummed and sung old favourites to provide a relaxed musical mood in Nolan Street. Community groups including Zonta and the Salvation Army – as well as Lions – were represented at the market.

Trevor Stevens, Maryborough Lions Club's market manager, said the extra attractions during the long weekend helped boost the market, which started strongly on March 4th. "It was great to see so many new traders at our Easter market," Mr Stevens said. "We're very excited at the prospect of growth in our market, the boost for local businesses and support for our community projects. We're also reminding Maryborough's other community groups that the market is a great opportunity to showcase their services to local residents."

Between the furiously busy barbecue, stallholder fees, a raffle and donations, the club raised about $1800 for new community projects, following on from the club's Liberty Swing project last year.

Lorraine Parker, Maryborough Lions Club president, thanked members for putting in such a big effort at the barbecue, managing traffic, collecting donations and providing information about Lions, which already has drawn interest from a prospective new member. "Our club members worked hard for the first CBD market last month and rallied again for the even bigger event at Easter, despite its falling in a long weekend."

Mr Stevens said that new stallholders were still being accepted for the CBD Tourist Market held on the first Sunday of every month and encouraged businesses selling goods ranging from fresh produce, preserves and cheeses to clothing, crafts and bric-a-brac to get in touch.

Station Domain Market to close

After four years battling unpredictable weather, the Carisbrook Lions Club is closing the Station Domain Market, with their last market to be held on Sunday 27th May.

"We feel that we struggled since December, with getting stallholders and the bad weather," Carisbrook Lions Club president Jefferson Hooper said.

"We'd rather have a successful market or not one at all," he said. "The club is grateful to everyone who has supported them over the years."

When they first started the market, it had 65 stallholders, which increased to 100 at one stage, but has now fallen to 20.

"The unpredictability of the weather was a major factor in this decision," Mr Hooper said.

The heat, rain and wind made the event difficult for some stallholders who had to hold down their gazebos at times to keep them from blowing away.

The market initially grew quickly but had declined in recent years. Mr Hooper said it was becoming increasingly difficult to offer a variety of stalls. He said the recent move of the Maryborough Lions Club Market into Maryborough was not a factor in the Carisbrook club's decision, as it had been thinking about closing the market for a while.

"We want to see the Maryborough Lions Market do well," he said.

The Carisbrook Lions will now concentrate on bigger things for the shire, with a number of ideas already in discussion. "A fun run, an event day like Rheola Gift, and catering which has more value for money to put into the community organisations," Mr Hooper said.

"We're open for ideas, what people would like to see in the shire."

The club will continue to be involved with events in the town, such as the Energy Breakthrough; Relay for Life; Clean Up Australia Day; and footy gates. They will also provide catering for more events around the town.

Mr Hooper said he didn't believe the town would suffer with one less market, as there were a number in the district including the Maryborough Lions Market, the Avoca Market and the Talbot Market. Stallholders had been saddened by the decision but understood why the club had made it.

"I think the Lions Club members are weary but sad, but we know we can do bigger and better things," Mr Hooper said.

Since the market began, 10 new members had joined the club bringing total membership to 40.

Mr Hooper said it took about 100 hours to organise each market. The Carisbrook Lions Club will be hosting this year's Lions District 201V1-4 convention at the Maryborough Trotting Track in November. Club members from their district will come to the event over the Remembrance Day weekend.

Carisbrook will be catering for the event and they are offering camping, with 150 people expected to attend. There will be Remembrance Service, guest speakers, gala dinner, meetings and other activities for members.
