MUSIC IN THE AIR

And the music goes on and on. Please don't stop the music dear Rachel. Don Giovanni at Victoria Hall in Tarnagulla last Saturday was out of this world. The amazing and beautiful voices filled the place and it didn't matter that there were no backdrops and very little props because the superb voices more than made up for it. As most operas are in Italian the wonderful diva Madame Carandini, alias Rachel Buckley, explained the action of each scene as the opera progressed.

In honour of the famous Mr. Lister's travelling opera company, this GBD Productions group travel around and perform just as they did in the early 1900s. The hall was packed and the audience, as one would expect, most appreciative. Afternoon tea and champagne were also most welcome. We await the next event which is most likely in the offing.

Mozart's Opera - Don Giovanni

The Melbourne-based touring opera company GBD Productions staged Mozart's Don Giovanni to a capacity audience on Saturday 30th June at the Victoria Theatre Tarnagulla.

It was wonderful to see so many young children and pre-teens in the audience, who were totally captivated by the opera – especially the scary scene with the ghost at the end of the opera. The children even helped to clean the hall after the show – they were a delight.

The champagne supper was splendidly catered for by the Tarnagulla Primary School parents and friends. Our next performance is in a fortnight in Warrnambool, then next fortnight in Geelong. We will be fortunate indeed if we are received as warmly as our Tarnagulla audience. This is what opera used to be like – stamping feet and shouting bravissimo! Madame Carandini would have been proud as Punch.

ROSIE'S RAMBLE

Really in the throes of Winter now – just a bit chilly. I see the Shire has done a great job rejuvenating the Phillips Gardens in Maryborough. The frog ponds were all de-weeded and cleaned out. I was wondering what they did with the frogs while this was going on. Herding frogs would make herding cats look like an easy task. It always rather amuses me when I hear of motorists driving across the city or town to queue for cheap fuel—surely they use the money they are "saving" to get to the fuel and sit in line.

Our phone companies are fairly quick to jump all over people who haven't or can't pay their bills. It is only taking Telstra three weeks to cut off an unused number that is being used by hackers to rip people off. Something wrong there.

I bought Mr. Ramble a new electric blanket the other day – the old one had given up the ghost. I was totally amazed to find that while the ordinary blanket had three temperature settings, another model has NINE. This included a special heat zone across the bottom so one can warm one's feet separately. It would take half the night to set it up to warm the bed, by which time I would have given up on the whole idea.

LETTERS TO EDITOR

Kangaroos - the saga continues

Dear Editor,

It seems that our friends at DEWLP (Department Environment Water Land Planning) and CGFS (Central Goldfields Shire) require us to send them notification that Victoria has plague proportions of kangaroos causing untold damage to agriculture and huge damage to vehicles and people using our roads.

For everyone to mail in letters of all the damage done to their vehicles would go into the 1000s, I would hazard a guess that 5 - 10 kangaroos are killed on Central Goldfields roads every day of the week. That's a lot in 12 months!

I thought it would be very clear that the large amount of permits issued to cull roos from the Dept. (even with all the restrictions and red tape) and with all the amount of "Kangaroos" signs in and around our shire, it would be obvious we have a problem.

When are the State and Federal governments going to do something about it ?

Kangaroos are no different to the rabbits we had some time back when it was decided to address the problem. It took quite a while but eventually it worked.

In NSW they have several large processing plants where they don't talk in carcass weight but many ton weight of meat. This needs to happen here in Victoria!

Its all very easy to put our heads in the sand and hope the problem will go away. You only have to look at the high fences they are installing on some of our freeways, and particularly at the airport to know what cost the increasing population of roos are causing.

To talk about birth control and fluorescent protein injection is just pie in the sky stuff.

Just last week a close friend wrote his car off when a kangaroo went up the windscreen and over the roof. (Very scary). In the meantime everyone that uses our country roads in early mornings or late evenings are driving on intense pressure and high alert scanning the road for kangaroos that shouldn't be there. Not good enough by far.

Editor's Note: This is, no doubt, a very concerning issue, as is evidenced by so many letters. However, at this stage, it would be more beneficial to write directly to DELWP or CGSC or government bodies to get the matter resolved. While writing to The Welcome Record is a good forum to air your grievances, we unfortunately cannot do anything about it. This is the final letter we will print regarding this matter. Thank you. ### Don Giovanni - Wonderful!

Wonderful, wonderful day!

Again thank you to Rachel Buckley. You bring so much joy to the area.

Fantastic talent. We look forward to more entertainment soon.

Hello Marilyn

We welcome Marilyn Goldie to our little paper. Marilyn has been with us for several months learning the ropes and edited The Welcome Record while I was on holidays. I was very impressed with how she took the reins and just got the job done. And she did a fantastic job!

Marilyn is very computer-literate and familiar with our Publisher Program – hooray! Exactly what we have hoped for all this time and our prayers have been answered.

This allows Faye Arnold, our other editor, to step down from the job to pursue other ventures. Faye is not leaving the paper entirely, but will continue to help with proof-reading or in an emergency. Faye did a wonderful job as co-editor and we thank her for all her efforts.

Marilyn comes from all over the place, including Adelaide, Darwin, Macedon, Edenhope and now Dunolly. Growing up in Adelaide and moving to country Victoria has had its challenges. For example, the lack of large shopping centres nearby and public transport.

Marilyn said, "Fortunately, the bus to Adelaide runs each day, starting from Bendigo. Whilst at Edenhope there was no easy way to get to Adelaide, so I am very grateful for the service in Dunolly. My roles over many years of working and running a business, I have waitressed, cooked, cleaned, and worked as an office temp for government departments. Also, managing the office and finances of a joint business run with my partner in Adelaide, added to my skills in administration and computer knowledge.

My move to Dunolly enables me to spend more time with my son and grandson. It is with appreciation that The Welcome Record staff and committee have welcomed me into their 'publishing world'. Dunolly is indeed fortunate to have such an eclectic group of people working as volunteers in the office producing a paper worth reading each week."

And now Marilyn has joined this "eclectic group" and we reciprocate her appreciation. Marilyn is now the sub-editor and will edit the paper twice monthly, sharing the load with me. She has also taken on the role of committee secretary. Here's to a long and happy association.

ARTS and ENTERTAINMENT

Rachel Buckley as Madame Carandini and narrator and spruiker.

Madame Carandini

London-born Marie Carandini (1826-1894), prima donna, sailed to Hobart in 1833. She married an exiled Italian Count and travelled with opera companies around the Goldfields of Victoria before heading back to London to star at Covent Garden.

She may have been a dour diva, or a jolly soul, but her talent was undisputed. I certainly played her for laughs during Don Giovanni. In her hey-day, the goldminers would have been conversant with opera, as it was the music of the masses. It is likely that comedy would have been an integral part of the productions as they were for Shakespeare's plays. This music was not for the elite – people would have hummed along to Mozart and Donizetti as they do with popular songs today. Madame Carandini was noted as being 'vivacious and piquant' in Donizetti's Daughter of the Regiment, claimed to be the most ambitiously-staged opera yet presented in the colonies. In June 1861 she sang at Dunolly's Frayne's Opera Theatre - same year Melba was born. As an interesting aside, her grandson is actor Sir Christopher Lee, famed for his role as Count Dracula.

Opera In Tarnagulla

What a treat for the 100 plus audience members Don Giovanni was on Saturday. The opera was sung in Italian, but Madame Carandini, played by Rachel Buckley, made sure the audience knew what was going on.

The cast of eight did an excellent job, managing effortlessly on the small stage when they were all present. The female voices reverberated around the lovely Victoria Theatre, and the strong male voices blended beautifully. Pamela Christie, accompanied the singers on the piano, and she was wonderful to listen to. Afterwards Mr Lyster, who runs the opera company, confessed that initially he was worried about the lack of a piano at the hall, but he could not have asked for a better result with the quality of the digital keyboard, the amplifier, and an excellent pianist.

Kimberley Barnham made the very authentic costumes, and they looked great.

As well as doing a terrific job as the narrator/interpreter, Rachel also encouraged the audience to cheer or boo and hiss by holding up the appropriate signs. And her performance as the servant girl being flattered by the handsome Don Giovanni was hilarious. Fantastic Rachel. The local primary school raised funds by selling afternoon tea during interval, which was much appreciated by everyone. A great afternoon's entertainment, thank you to everyone involved.

BEALIBA CWA UPDATE

New members are always welcome at Bealiba. Young, new members are doubly welcome as they are our future and will lead the CWA in the coming decades – we think long term! This year we have been very fortunate in attracting several younger women and on that note, I'd like to welcome our newest member, Suzie Deason. Suzie, I really hope you enjoy the CWA experience and the friendship of your fellow members.

Much of our June meeting was taken up with arrangements for Association Day and celebrations for the Association's 90th birthday. These events will be combined into one day on 19th July starting at 1.30pm in the Bealiba Hall. Whilst all the branches in the East Wimmera Group and other nearby branches have been invited the afternoon is open to anyone who would like to come along.

We plan on having a blind auction, a trading table, raffle, numerous games and quizzes plus a lovely afternoon tea where the 90th birthday cake will be cut. The aim of the day is to raise money for the Association plus have fun.

During our 'show and tell' there were some lovely items on display that members had made including a handkerchief that had been edged using a needle tatting technique. Very impressive, Jan.

Thank you

The craft shop has now closed permanently after eleven years. Thanks to Rod Stuart and staff from the Dunolly Bakery. For eleven years they have been the pickup and drop off point for the craft shop keys. Without their generous support we would not have been able to function as well as we did. It was greatly appreciated by all of us.

Thanks also to all the members who volunteered their time to keep the doors open. But a special thanks goes to Jean Bradshaw who filled in tirelessly and worked more hours than anybody to make sure we could open. I hope all members find another outlet for their craft because all their work is of a high standard. Good luck for the future.

They included: The Road to Gundagai; You are my Sunshine; Ain't she sweet; Five foot two; I'm dreaming of a White Christmas; Silent Night; Jingle Bells and We wish you a Merry Christmas. We thank the Band for the wonderful entertainment.

The raffle was then drawn and the lucky door prizes. Plum Pudding served with custard, cream and ice-cream completed the meal. Thank you to everyone who came and made this such an enjoyable occasion. Thanks also to all those who helped on the day and setting up the hall on Tuesday.

Travels with Cynthia

Anyone who reads my articles must get rather confused as I jump from the late 50s to the 80s and now I am progressing to the 2000s. A few short years ago Liz and I decided to go on a cruise to Turkey and the Greek Islands. In my young days of travelling, Greece had been one place on my projected itinerary, but which I had never made. Finally going there was certainly not a disappointment as Greece is one of the most beautiful old civilisations in the world. However, I never intended to write travelogues, as they have been done hundreds of times before. I will go back to our life on the cruise ship. After spending a few days in Athens where we walked and walked and walked, half the time because we couldn't find a booth to buy a ticket, just like our Myk now, we set off to the harbour at Piraeus to embark on our ship, the Cristal. First thing I noted was the last person's rubbish in the cupboard drawers so went up to the purser's office to report it. Did I make a mistake there because it turned out that our cabin steward was responsible and he was most upset. We finished up naming him Manuel because he so reminded us of Manuel in Fawlty Towers. He was a little Greek man, always bustling and over-attentive. I had to apologise for my oversight and from then on we almost had to chase him out of our cabin. He would bring us copies of the ship's bulletin, menus and always trying to please. Served me right.

Up in the dining room Liz and I chose the late sitting for meals and discovered we had the misfortune to share a table with six Americans; a couple who were retired teachers spending their lives on cruise ships travelling the world, adopting a superior attitude as a result, and four New Yorkers travelling together. We did not manage to get any scintillating conversation at that table. They were all almost non drinkers, "Oh more than one glass puts me to sleep" and the New Yorkers were quite youngish. When Liz and I ordered a bottle of red the older woman said "Oh I suppose you will put a cork on it and take it away for tomorrow". Liz looked her in the eye and replied "Of course not. We are going to drink the bottle now." Shock, horror! One night the day's tour was being discussed and I mentioned how a lady from a different tour was waiting for the return of her group which she had left to go up the Arcadian Way. I was able to explain to her in French that they were not coming back but she needed to join them at the top. I was asked about my ability to speak French and Liz piped up and said "Yes Cynthia went to a French convent." Eyes opened wide because of course they all thought I had been schooled in France. Later when our superior lady was being a bit overbearing, Liz threw into the conversation that my family owned a castle. This wasn't strictly true as my ancestors had owned it in Scotland many moons ago, but it made everyone sit up and look impressed. What devils we were. Another drawback was having to sit next to the travelling husband because he was obsessed with Jaguar cars which he collected and restored and almost his entire conversation was Jags. So we devised a plan to take turns in sitting next to him as our designated places were on either side of the couple. That meant that only one of us per night had to be bored silly. They only ever drank a single glass of wine, but we discovered through some people they had met on the ship that they shared a bottle of champagne in their cabin every night before dinner. Well, well!

I hope I haven't shocked anyone because we did have some fun times on that ship and they had some tremendous theatre entertainment at night and great service.

Antio sas – that's goodbye in Greek – I think.

Forgotten fire season arrives

Local fire brigades are urging Central Goldfields Shire residents to be mindful of house fires this winter during what is described as the "forgotten fire season".

The CFA and MFB launched their Residential Fire Safety Campaign this month to raise awareness of the winter fire season and to help people stay fire-safe around the house.

Last winter in Victoria there were around 15 percent more preventable house fires compared to other seasons, with the CFA attending 467 preventable house fires.

In 2017, chimney fires caused 121 fires in CFA areas and 29 fires related to wood-fuelled heating.

Cold weather-related causes of preventable house fires last year included fixed and portable heaters, central heating, chimney fire and combustibles too close to heating. Kitchens, bedrooms and lounges were the most common areas of origin of preventable house fires last year, with 1302 starting in kitchens, 245 in bedrooms and 219 in lounges.

The most common causes of preventable house fires in 2017 were unattended cooking, faulty electrical distribution, faulty electrical appliances and smoking.

Carisbrook CFA Captain Ian Boucher said the brigade sees more house fires during winter than any other fire season and urged locals to check their heaters and wood fires.

"We definitely see more house fires during winter, and you see a lot of fires started from wood fires at this time of year," he said. "Last year we attended a couple of preventable house fires that were caused by chimney flues being completely chocked up. People should get the flue on wood fires checked every 12 months, get a chimney sweep out as required and make sure it's clean. If you've got an open log fire inside don't leave it unattended because logs can roll out and cause fires. Make sure you get your gas heaters checked by a registered technician every 12 months. If you find yourself going to sleep by the heater at night it's probably a good time to get it checked. Heaters have been lying dormant over summer and probably haven't been cleaned out from the year before, or even a couple of years, and that's when things can go wrong."

Captain Boucher also recommended residents create an evacuation plan in case of a house fire. "If you've got a family, sit down and make sure you have a family evacuation plan. Make sure everybody knows what happens in the case of a fire and have a meeting point," he said.

Other fire safety tips include:

- keeping clothing a safe distance from heaters,
- cleaning the lint filters in clothes dryers,
- turning off electrical appliances that are not being used, avoid placing weighty objects on beds with electric blankets
- and taking care when cooking.

For more information and to complete the CFA's home fire safety check visit www.cfa.vic.gov.au/plan-prepare/home-fire-safety-checklist.

Well winter is well and truly here! It is extremely hard to get out of bed, but it is worth getting out into the winter days for Tai Chi at the Arts Hub on Tuesdays & Thursdays at 10am, warm up with exercise, or even on a Friday at 6pm.

We still have Mosaics on a Monday morning at 10am. Our numbers are a little depleted as one of our members is heading overseas to the UK, but we welcome two new members to the group. A few stalwart souls still come to mosaic, drink tea & chat. The fire is always lit. All of us are able to teach the basics of mosaics to anyone who comes along. All you need to bring is a simple project to get started on. We have lots of glass & pottery supplies and tools you can borrow.

The Craft Exhibition is on this weekend 7th and 8th July from 10am-4pm daily. Any items that are to be in the exhibition can be dropped at the Arts Hub on Thursday 5th July between 10am & 3pm. If you haven't picked up an entry form, don't worry, just pop along on Thursday or the set day on Friday and pay your $1. We can fill out an entry form and set-up for the Exhibition. If you have a large item or need to drop off after-hours or early, just give me a ring on 0418 875453 and we can arrange it. There will still be a People's Choice Prize of $100, so you have to be in it to win it. We are looking forward to seeing you there.

In August the Annual 'Words in Winter' 2018 starts. The theme is Change & Chance. The festival goes from Saturday 4th August – Saturday 25th August. Experience an exciting line-up of local regional words, art, poetry, music, events, and great food and wine across the Central Goldfields. Programs and Tickets to events can be accessed at wordsinwinter.com. There are events all over our local area with three events here in Dunolly.

Thank you to The Welcome Record committee for their kind donation of funds to support the Annual Art Show at the Dunolly Art Hub and the Words in Winter event. This generosity enables local community events to grow and continue in the future.

GOLDEN TRIANGLE TREASURES CRAFT SHOP

It is with sadness that we say goodbye to our "Craft Shop."

The shop has been a great success over the last 11 years with Vicky Frizzell at the helm and Jean Bradshaw as her side-kick to fill in and "discuss" things whenever she was needed.

Of course it would not have lasted as long if the wonderful talented crafters of the district did not become members and put their "stuff" in the shop for sale. Also the many volunteers who worked in the shop to keep it open. We thank you very much for your input.

We will be having a Thankyou afternoon at the Centre in late August when all is tied up and you are all invited, so please watch this space for details. Thank you all!

TARNAGULLA TALK

Our beautiful, sunny weekend was made all the more special by our town coming to life on Saturday. The Victoria Theatre was a wonderful venue for Don Giovanni and the theatre was jam-packed with opera lovers. Tarnagulla residents came out in force, people travelled from other towns, some attending their first ever opera. Children were welcomed to experience a performance different to any they had yet seen.

I enjoyed Don Giovanni from the busy kitchen as Tarnagulla Primary Parents and Friends busily plated up cakes and sandwiches, prepared the cups, saucers, boiled the urn and straightened our aprons ready for the intermission onslaught. We occasionally sneaked in the door to watch from up the back of the theatre. What we saw and heard was wonderful!

Jordan Ford was one of the patrons and will give you the theatre-goers perspective.

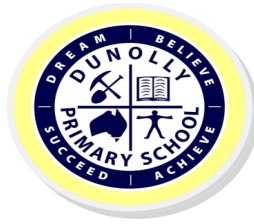

"Blah, blah, wonderful, blah." – Jordan Ford

We are very lucky that Rachel Buckley of Dunolly has such enthusiasm, energy, talent and community spirit because it was her initiative that brought this show to Tarnagulla. It was fabulous to see the theatre used for its intended purpose.

◇ We've reached the end of a fantastic term. It's very exciting to look back and see all we've achieved, participated in, experienced and the opportunities we've exposed our students to.

◇ Thank you to you – our wonderful parents. We'd like to offer some encouraging words to all of you who are doing a wonderful job with your children. Check out the clip on the facebook page or type this into your browser ... https://

www.facebook.com/familyvoiceaustralia/videos/1458216717612179/ YOU REALLY MATTER ! Take some time to enjoy your children these holidays and pat yourself on the back.

◇ I've had quite a few conversations with parents recently about concerns over technology use. It is an individual parent decision – and remember you have a choice despite what your child insists. Here are some tips to consider:

- Use your judgement – screen time limits are a good idea – video chatting with grandparents is different from playing a game
- Protect bedtime – phones/tablets/computers should be off 30 minutes before bedtime to enable the brain to shut off. Don't allow devices in bedrooms – even for alarms. Alarm clocks are cheap !
- Pay attention – to what your child is doing online, who they're talking to, what type of games are they playing
- Foster real-life friendships – some kids find it difficult to connect with peers but believe they have 500+ 'online' friends.
- Teach good online behaviour – what are good interactions and how to recognise dangerous ones.

Once you've made a decision around what technology usage you think is appropriate for your child, communicate this with them and stick to it – no matter how much they protest. Eg. If you decide they will have half an hour a day – give them a clear time to be off it. If they don't stick to it – remove the privilege the next day etc.. Children are the masters of pester power !

Have a wonderful break and we will see everyone back on Monday 16th July

Dunolly Sense of place ...update

There has been quite a bit of action at the Ministry of Fun over the last few weeks, getting into the process of creating the community sculptures.

From the drawings made by students at the primary school, we have selected four drawings to be the shapes.

These have been cut out of cool room panels, and the edges sealed with flashing...and soon work will begin on tiling the images.

The other major task is decorating around 400 tiles with drawings created by community members, reflecting on their connection with Dunolly. We are approaching community groups to engage participants, but would love to have input from those who may not have a connection with any specific group in the community. Our first Tile painting session will be Wednesday 11th July, 10am-12.30pm, at the Ministry of Fun, 120 Broadway, then Wednesday mornings through to the 22nd August. Also Saturday afternoons, 28th July, 4th & 18th August, 1.30pm-4.00pm. We have all the materials, and can guide you through the process....approximately an hour would be a suggested time commitment.

Council meeting outcomes

At its Meeting last week, Council adopted the 2018/19 Budget, following its display for comment (with no submissions received).

The 2018/19 Budget has more than $11 million in capital expenditure (some of this expenditure is contingent on external funding). This includes $4.1 million for recreational, leisure and community facilities, $3.66 million for roads, $0.85 million for parks, open space and streetscapes, $0.35 million for urban and road drainage, and $0.24 million for footpaths.

The average rate rise is 2.25 per cent in line with the State Government's rate capping level, while management of waste will remain cost neutral with kerbside rubbish collection charges to increase by five per cent. These waste management costs include the operation of landfills and transfer stations across the Shire as well as kerbside collection services (including recycling).

Other strategic documents adopted by Council at last week's meeting include the Domestic Animal Management Plan and Roadside Management Plan, which are now available on Council's website (www.loddon.vic.gov.au).

The Domestic Animal Management Plan sets out the framework for the planning and management of animal services across our Shire over the next four years. It outlines a number of strategic outcomes around issues associated with pets and pet ownership, such as increasing pet registrations and microchipping, decreasing the incidence of dog attacks and managing dangerous, menacing and restricted breed dogs.

The Roadside Management Plan is Council's document for setting the direction for roadside management within the local rural road network in the Shire. It has four roadside management goals: maintain a safe road network, access for all road users, protect biodiversity and heritage assets, and increase awareness of roadside management and values.

Council also endorsed the reactivation of the Loddon Youth Council, which will use a range of engagement methods via new technologies, including a virtual Youth Council. Further engagement will include youth-led peer consultation, presentations by young people at Council Forums and a Youth Council Facebook group.

Council recognises the importance of young people to the future of the Shire and the value of working with our young people to ensure their voices are heard. The reactivation of the Loddon Youth Council will enable young people to get involved in the decision making process of Council, and assist them to develop the skills, confidence and opportunities to be active citizens.

Pick My Project deadline extended

Good news – the closing date to submit nominations for the Pick My Project grants initiative has been extended until midnight Sunday 8 July 2018.

If you haven't already heard about it, Pick My Project is a State Government initiative that gives community members the chance to suggest and decide on ideas that will make their community a better place to live. All Victorians aged 16 years and over have the chance to submit project ideas for consideration.

The closing date extension is a great opportunity for community members to try and secure funding for a favourite local idea or project that may not come under other grant programs.

Once you have your idea, you then need to partner with an eligible organisation, such as a community group, school or Loddon Shire, where appropriate, before you submit your idea. Community members will decide on their favourite ideas by voting, with winning ideas receiving funding. Winning projects will be announced in September 2018.

Projects between $20,000 and $200,000 are eligible for the program, with a total of $30 million allocated for Pick My Project to fund community ideas around the state.

Victorian Regional Achievement and Community Awards

Do you know an individual, group or organisation in Loddon Shire that deserves to be recognised? If so, you might want to consider putting forward a nomination for the Victorian Regional Achievement and Community Awards.

The awards aim to encourage, acknowledge and reward the valuable contributions of individuals, communities, and businesses throughout regional and rural Victoria.

There are some great prizes for award winners, including either $2,000 into an account in the award winner's name from Bank of Melbourne or air time packages on PRIME7 for category winners.

The awards are free to enter and you can easily complete an online nomination form. Visit <https://awardsaustralia.com/regional-achievement-community-awards/vic> to find out more.

Nominations for the awards close Wednesday 18 July 2018.

DFNC NEWS

Round 10 Report Football

U11.5

Bye

U14.5

Unbelievable effort from everyone involved in the Sunday game. Thanks to the parents, volunteers, permit players and the U11s coming to help out. It was a great contest all day and with more numbers and support we showed glimpses of what the juniors are capable of. Although we didn't get the win, it was a great effort and great to watch, improving all the time. Great work Eagles.

Netball

Round 10 was a tough slog all day with our girls only being able to draw 1 game for the day and a couple of close margins.

Under 13s

Under 13s ended up with a 13 all draw.

Under 15s

In a low-scoring match the under 15s could not quite overcome Natte with final scores being Dunolly 10 to Natte 16.

Under 17s

With a relatively even match all game, Natte were able to take the win by 2. Final score Dunolly 24 to Natte 26. Incentives went to Ellen and Chloe.

C Grade

Despite a strong first quarter, Dunolly couldn't stop Natte in the remaining three quarters, who ran home easy winners. Final score Dunolly 17 to Natte 46. Incentive went to Madi.

B Grade

Similar to the C grade game, Natte came out firing and continued their strong game to the final whistle. Final score Dunolly 60 to Natte 11. Incentive went to Rowie.

A Grade

In a tough physical match the score didn't vary by many goals the whole day. In the end Natte were able to get up by 2 goals. Final score Dunolly 33 to Natte 35. Edo received the incentive this week, with Frankie receiving the rough diamond award.

It's time to come home

The Dunolly Football Netball Club has turned the corner and the future is again looking bright. We have new local people at the club who are dedicated to providing a quality sporting and social environment where everyone feels welcome to participate.

I recently returned from being overseas for the past 6 years and having played football myself at a high level, I often said to my wife and daughter that when we return to Australia, I wanted to coach. Dunolly was a club that I thought might benefit from more people helping out, so I went down to the club to help out any way I could.

I am very happy and proud to have been interviewed and appointed the Dunolly Under 17.5yrs coach for the 2019 season. As coach I will emphasize the development of self-esteem, good sportsmanship, fitness, achievement, teamwork, and skill as well as encourage courtesy, proper conduct and respect for others, officials, and spectators through the playing of the game.

To local families, I would like to invite you down to the club to watch a game or to get involved in the club. Helping in the canteen, selling raffle tickets, bringing oranges to the game, whatever the role, small or large, it all helps make the club stronger. A strong local club means your kids have a place that is safe, enjoyable and teaches them strong social community values.

Currently, there are a large number of Dunolly locals playing at other clubs. It's time to come home. Come represent your town and make Dunolly great again.

DUNOLLY SOCIAL CYCLISTS

At last, the weather was kind, although cold for our "Crusoe Reservoir" ride in Kangaroo Flat last Sunday. What a pleasant surprise, a magical experience. Our decision was to do it again a.s.a.p. with more time more food etc., although after the overseas travellers return. To have a bushy wonderland so close to a major city is amazing.

This is a must do for any cyclists, walkers, runners etc.

Our next ride will be on Sunday 15th July - details in next week's Welcome Record.

BEALIBA HALL

Carpet Bowls

Some very close games this week with two teams having one win, one draw and one loss. The best team of the night with two wins was Garry Coburn, Betty Lovel and Alan Parkes. Betty was playing extremely well.

Garden club expedition

On Monday 25th June, a group of Dunolly and District ladies went on the monthly Garden Club expedition to Possum Gully Fine Arts Gallery, Adelaide Lead, on the south western side of Maryborough. The group shared rides to the gallery and arrived in good spirits, even though the day was rain-free, cloudy and cold. Upon being greeted by the owner, Patricia Walsh, we were ushered into the warmth of the gallery. Many had been before, but there were new displays of art, angel sculptures and pottery to discover.

After looking through the gallery, everyone ventured out into the gardens surrounding the hexagonal mud-brick building, which is a huge part of the art displayed on the outside as well as inside. The walls of the gallery had magnificent butterflies displayed along with other art works.

The garden proved to be a treasure trove of plants, sculptures, colourful art on fencing and so much more. With a huge range of plants to admire, and purchase too, everyone took their time examining every nook and cranny, which were, along with the plants, filled with delightful colourful pottery an iron chicken, cats, birds etc.. Other magnificent sculptures were on the borders of the garden, some holding bonsai plants, some displaying colourful metal shaped birds. There was so much to see, that a second visit is warranted, maybe in Spring.

Soon it was time for us to reluctantly leave and return to Dunolly. Plans were made to meet again for a coffee break at the Railway Café Maryborough. Luckily we arrived just in time as the restaurant was closing earlier than usual. We were also fortunate as that was the last Monday that the café will be opened. The warmth of the restaurant was appreciated as we sat around reminiscing on the Possum Gully Gallery gardens and how we could translate what we admired into our own gardens.

All in all, a fabulous day, spent in gorgeous surroundings, both at the gallery and for coffee, with affable company.

Watch out for the next Garden Club outing in July.
