Melbourne sculptor headlining arts trail

L-R: Philip Ashton, Judy Meldrum and Anna Ashton

Big things are planned for this year's Tiny Towns Arts Trail, with Dunolly leading the way, securing famed sculptor Deborah Halpern to hold an exhibition. Now in its third year, the art trail will be held over two weekends, April 21 and 22 and April 28 and 29, when 10 towns and 25 venues will showcase local artistic talent.

Dunolly, Tarnagulla, Eddington, Clunes, Maryborough, Adelaide Lead, Bealiba and Avoca have signed up to the arts trail for another year while Newstead and Talbot are participating for the first time.

"It's gathered a little more momentum each year and we've got a couple of new towns in," Dunolly's Ministry of Fun's, Judy Meldrum said.

"Everyone has responded from last year and have come on-board. We're continuing to grow."

This year's major drawcard for Dunolly is a month-long Deborah Halpern exhibition held in the Dunolly Courthouse. Beginning at the Easter long weekend, the exhibition is a way to introduce Ms Halpern's work to the community as the Melbourne artist is planning to create a massive public sculpture in Dunolly later this year. As part of her visit, Ms Halpern is also hosting a mosaic workshop during the arts trail.

"It's a fabulous opportunity to work in a small group with her. She'll lead us through her particular process of how she develops a drawing into a mosaic," Ms Meldrum said.

Leading up to the arts trail, the Ministry of Fun is hosting Saturday workshops where community members can paint pictures of their dog to honour Dunolly's Koko, who starred in the Australian hit film Red Dog.

Receiving $3000 from the Regional Centre for Culture for the arts trail and the Red Dog project, the Ministry of Fun is hosting the workshops from 10am to 1pm at the pavilion in Barkly Street. The workshops occur every Saturday in March and April.

"People are free to come along and just paint a picture of their dog. We're going to fill Broadway with dog art," Ms Meldrum said.

For further information regarding the arts trail visit the Tiny Towns Arts Trail Facebook page.

ROSIE'S RAMBLE

If you sit on Broadway, Dunolly for a while, you will see a lot of things. For instance, Joyce and I were selling raffle tickets last week, when we saw something neither of us had seen before—a man got out of a vehicle with a fish on his cap. I think it was a spotted trout—we were a bit far away for a positive identification.

Coming home from Maryborough on the Dunolly-Maryborough Road the other day, I saw something I must have passed hundreds of times over the years. On the front wall of a brown brick house, there was a greeting picked out in matching bricks that had moved forward from the flat wall. It said "Welcome". How very nice!

Imagine having your hour of fame as the Duralax girl on the TV. I reckon one would think long and hard before taking that gig!

I have achieved two of my more humble ambitions in the last twelve months. Last year I won a wood raffle. And recently I bought a ticket in an Easter raffle at the market and won. I now have a bag full of assorted chocolate treats (and a really cute toy rabbit), AND it is Lent. I will have to hide it from myself for the next few weeks.

I've been reading an English magazine featuring Christmas gifts—thought I'd give you something to think about over the next months. How about 'Lease a Hen'? For 23 pounds a quarter, four eggs a week from free-range chooks, will be delivered to you. You can even name a hen in the flock. How about 'Adopt a row of lavender'? For ten pounds all you have to do is keep your row weed free and you will collect a bucket of lavender in July. More of these inspiring ideas next week.

Independent Living Units for Dunolly: from possibility to reality?

There has been sporadic discussion for many years that to build Independent Living Units [ILU] on the hospital campus in Dunolly would go a long way to providing secure, convenient, affordable and high quality housing for older people in the district. The Dunolly District Hospital Auxiliary has taken up the challenge. We are concerned that there are gaps in the housing and care continuum between living an independent life at home and needing to access high-care residential aged care, especially for people on lower incomes. Many in our community are geographically and socially isolated and have poor quality, insecure housing. Even when people own their homes, the market value may be insufficient to buy into alternative and suitable accommodation. So the perceived need is there, but we need to identify the extent and significance of the problem to confirm our "hunches".

The ILU Project is gathering momentum. Maryborough District Health Service has donated land on the Dunolly Campus to enable up to 17 units to be built. The Health Service has also generously donated funds for a Feasibility Study to be undertaken over the next two months. Christine Nunn, from Project Partnerships, will prepare our Feasibility Study and will consult widely as part of her research. Two Community consultations are scheduled for Wednesday 18th April in the Dunolly Town Hall at 2pm and 6pm, so put the date aside. An extensive community survey will also be conducted through the district.

We have also begun consulting with organisations that finance and manage housing programs for vulnerable, older people and our project is generating a lot of interest. The intersection of housing and health issues we observe in the Dunolly district can be replicated throughout small rural communities. We are fortunate to have suitable land available and active support from the MDHS Board and Executive, so the Auxiliary is keen to prepare our submission as soon as possible. We will keep our communities informed at every step along the way.

Climate Change Information Night

Have you heard about climate change and want to find out about its impact locally and some positive solutions? This is your opportunity to hear from Leigh Ewbank, the Action Climate Coordinator from Friends of the Earth, who will discuss how climate change might impact on the local community and some strategies that can be employed to reduce the impact. One of the things that could be discussed on the night, is the Central Goldfields Environmental Sustainability Action Plan. Prepared in 2012, this plan provides a framework for sustainable planning, decision-making and action, to achieve improved environmental sustainability for the Goldfields Shire and the community, through until 2020. The information night is free and is open to all individuals and community groups and will be held at the Cambrian Hotel between 4.30pm and 7.00pm on Thursday the 22nd of March. For more details please contact Brian Park on 54614281.

Travels with Cynthia

Moving forward in time on my trip with Liz through America and Europe, to Rome, I have another exciting memory of an unexpected treat we accidentally came across. We were staying in a charming little hotel in one of Rome's narrow, winding streets and one day we noticed an unusual number of people walking past up the hill towards the fashion house of Carla Zampatti, which was just across from the famous Spanish Steps. Naturally, Liz and I joined the crowd, and arriving at the top of the steps realised a fashion show was about to take place. We were still in time to climb down the vast concourse of stone steps, shortly to be closed to the public. Had we missed out we would have had to go back around a network of streets to arrive at the bottom.

Fancy chairs were placed in rows facing the steps for all the invited guests, but we were able to stand behind them a short distance away.

Next thing, the music started and the models started floating down the steps in such beautiful gowns, so poised and elegant. There were none of those skinny women with stick-thin legs back then, but models with normal, feminine figures. This was my first fashion show and I was carried away. Across the street at the base of the steps were little shops and cafes, so afterwards we chose one to have a meal and discuss this wonderful event. Something I noticed both in Rome and in Paris was that the famous fashion houses were tucked away in quiet spots with no big signs outside and one could visit them only by appointment.

Dunolly Arts News

There is a lot happening in Dunolly!

The Tiny Towns Arts Trail is now in its third year.

As the brainchild of the Dunolly District Inc., in collaboration with the Ministry of Fun, Central Goldfields Shire Regional Centre for Culture (RCC) and Creative Arts Victoria, we have some amazing events in the pipeline. There are some wonderful exhibitions coming to Dunolly, plus workshops that will launch in early April and continue through to the Tiny Towns Arts Trail. The Trail this year runs over two weekends: Saturday 21st/28th and Sunday 22nd/29th April.

Celebrate arts and creativity across the region over the two weekends that book-end Anzac Day. Great weather; great events and wonderful things to see and do.

We have Deborah Halpern coming to exhibit and work with the community in Dunolly. Deborah is an internationally-renowned sculptor, with work in most major Australian cities and regional centres. Deborah is probably best-known for her iconic angel that stood in the moat of the National Gallery Victoria (NGV) for 17 years.

Deborah's month-long exhibition at the Dunolly Court House Precinct will open Thursday 31st March and will feature both slumped and blown glass, ceramics, mosaic, fibreglass, plus works on paper. Along with photography by Richard Tatti, all the works will be on sale. We will then have an opportunity for eight local people to work with Deborah over the Easter weekend, learning with her how to design and complete a mosaic panel. All materials and tools supplied. The cost is $380, of which Deborah is donating a percentage back to the community to augment a grant we have received from the RCC and Creative Victoria. The grant is to produce a large public sculpture. Led by Deborah and working with the whole Dunolly community, this six-month project will bring more workshops and up-skilling opportunities. This is an extraordinary chance to be part of a public sculpture build with Deborah Halpern.

We also have two David Archer workshops coming later in April, all in the lead up to the Trail. Friday 13th April is a one day 11-14yr old Kid's Wacky Wire Critterbug workshop only $25, to be held at the Ministry of Fun, followed by an Automata Workshop for only eight participants. It is booking fast. The cost is only $125 for the whole 5-day workshop, Saturday 14th to Wednesday 18th April. All materials and tools supplied. We have this amazing opportunity due to the Regional Centre of Culture! To book email: ministryoffundunolly@gmail.com or text to 0491 002 484.

At the moment, the Red Dog on Broadway project has quietly launched, with workshops every Saturday morning between 10am and 1pm (except Easter) in the lead-up to the Trail. Come along; it is all free and we are painting portraits and other fun projects to celebrate the dogs in our lives. If you are not sure if you can draw or paint, we have some great ideas to get you started. Bring along your dog or a photo. The Art works will then be displayed up and down Broadway as part of the Tiny Towns Arts Trail and you will all have an opportunity to sell your paintings, or perhaps buy one! We are hoping to capture some pictures and stories of locals and their pooches and immortalise them in paint. Look out for information on Red Dog holiday activities for children.

If you need to know more about these exhibitions, workshops and projects and you want to get involved, you can find us on Facebook - Tiny Towns Arts Trail and on the Ministry of Fun Dunolly Facebook page and website. Google RCC2018 or read about it here in The Welcome Record. For those who don't do social media, the brochures and flyers are in the Dunolly RTC. Check out updates on the Imagination Station in Rene Fox Gardens. Or simply look for the Red-Dog sign at the Tennis Pavilion, corner of Barkly and Thompson Streets. If the sign is out, we are in. Look out for the posters and flyers around town too.

Renowned children's author Phil Kettle headlined Dunolly Primary School's Writers' Festival last week, where students had the opportunity to work closely with authors and illustrators.

Joined by local author Susan Day and cartoonist James Stuart, Mr Kettle spoke with the students last Monday about the importance of reading every day before guiding students through the planning process he uses to develop his ideas into stories that are currently enjoyed by children all over Australia. Dunolly author, Ms Day, engaged the students with her tales of Clarence, The Snake From Dunolly, and shared her ideas for turning ordinary characters into extraordinary ones such as those in her Astro series of books.

Cartoonist, James Stuart, a former Dunolly PS student, introduced students to his cartoon-style illustrations and assisted each child to create their own cartoon character.

Principal, Katie Lovel, said the school was grateful to have the authors and illustrator visit.

"It was wonderful our students had the opportunity to be inspired by published authors and illustrators, and even more so, with two of the workshop artists being locals," she said. "Improving writing is a major focus for us at Dunolly PS and the motivating factor behind the day.

We are continually striving to provide the best education for our students through various programs and we are determined not to let our rurality inhibit this," she said. Following the success of the day, it is hoped the Writers' Festival will become an annual event.

Maryborough Lions Club CBD Market a huge success

Perfect March weather helped make Maryborough Lions Club's first Tourist Market in the town centre a huge success on Sunday 4th March, with about 40 traders selling bric-a-brac, clothing and produce. Visitors came from as far afield as St Arnaud and Melbourne.

While most Maryborough shops are closed on Sundays, nearly all businesses in the market precinct of Nolan and Alma Streets opened their doors for business on the market day, which will be repeated on the first Sunday of each month, including Easter Sunday on 1st April. Sections of Nolan and Alma Streets were closed to traffic for the market, but the barriers were lifted by 2pm. The club's barbeque helpers were run off their feet and needed to replenish supplies five times through the morning. There was also strong interest in the club's information stand from prospective new members. (see photo above).

Trevor Stevens, Maryborough Lions Club's Market Manager and immediate past president, said the club would now seek to build its initial success and was looking for more stallholders. "We'd like to see more stalls and also a diversity of wares on offer. We're also keen to attract musicians or other entertainers to entertain visitors to the market," he said.

The Tourist Market will run on the first Sunday of the month from 8am to 1pm in Alma/Nolan Streets.

Dunolly Community Market

"GIVING BACK"

The Market was held this weekend with beautiful weather and 19 stallholders and several businesses open to welcome shoppers as they made their way along Broadway.

The SES hosted the BBQ and has reported that this also was a success (raising much needed funds for their organisation). If your group would like to host a BBQ for fund raising; we still have a few market dates available. For Bookings please call 0474 008 121.

The Market Committee would like to thank all those who attended and those who participated.

The next Market will be on Sunday April 8th. Hope to see you all there.

The Fitness Seminar with Peter Conroy Fundraising Event

The Fitness Seminar with Peter Conroy held last Saturday 10th March, was a success despite last-minute changes.

We had a great attendance, even with the long weekend, where most people were away on holiday.

Peter Conroy has over 29 years experience in the fitness industry and he has a successful Karate Club and Tournament Squad representing Victoria in both State/National and International championships. Peter also works as a personal trainer based in Camperdown Victoria.

The seminar began with Peter talking about what he does as a personal trainer and shared his experience with his weight issue, which is a common and sensitive subject most people face nowadays.

All attendees then had a Free Body Composition Reading (RRP $60) using the Tanita scale which measures the percentages of bone, fat, water and muscle in your body.

It also measures your metabolic rate (BMR) and Body Mass Index (BMI) and gives your metabolic age as compared with your actual age.

This body analysis scale gives a true indicator of your inner health and, when monitored over time, can show the impact of any fitness regime or weight loss programme.

Peter said body composition science was established in 1944 and is not the sort of thing that your GP will speak to you about. It is, however, used in the Australian Institute of Sport and by personal trainers worldwide to assist people to both understand and manage their health and fitness.

Everyone had a good laugh about their metabolic ages, some were younger than their actual ages, some were older, and some were exactly the same as their actual ages.

Peter also talked about some dietary supplement products, which also benefit most of his PT clients, and shared his knowledge and experience on these products.

Peter's trip to Dunolly took several hours from home to run the seminar, plus, he is donating the commission of his sales to me to assist me with my fundraising. Thank you Peter for your generosity and your time 😊

I would also like to thank all those who attended the seminar for your support. For those who missed out last weekend, Peter will be back in several months time to run another seminar and to follow up on the progress for those who attended last weekend.

BRIAN WATTS

We were very saddened to hear of the passing of Brian. He was a true gentleman!

We often called on him to take people on Bird Watching expeditions and to get rid of wasps nests. I particularly remember a time we had to run for our lives one evening when we were chased by angry wasps as he ascertained what to do to get rid of a huge nest above the Centre's front door! The next time I asked for help with this he just gave me the equipment as a DIY!

Rest In Peace Brian, we will miss you!

March is all about workshops in preparation for Tiny Towns Arts Trail which will be held over two weekends, 21st and 22nd and April 28th and 29th April.

The Arts Hub will kick off its Tiny Towns Arts Trail event with a Runway Show on Thursday 19th April. This will be held within an exhibition so guests will be able to immerse themselves in the event while watching the runway show, which will consist of garments made from the Mystery Bag Challenge being modelled.

Workshops - at the Arts Hub

Sunday 18th March at 1.30pm – Top to Toe Workshop. Come and decorate a hat, handbag or pair of shoes to be part of the exhibition. Bring the kids along if you like, BYO a handbag, hat or pair of shoes to decorate and join in the fun. Free workshop.

Saturday 31st March at 1.30pm - Bianca Flint.

I do realise it is Easter Saturday, but it was our only opportunity to have Bianca Flint from the Wardrobe Green in Ballarat to come and teach us sustainable ways of extending our wardrobes. Be inspired to revive and modernise garments using simple yet effective techniques. Guests are asked to bring along one or two garments from their own wardrobes to refashion into new and stylish pieces. No sewing or crafting experience necessary. Free workshop.

Saturday April 14th at 1.30pm - Lauren Murray

Straight from Melbourne this upcycling fashionista will show us her techniques of turning a man's shirt into a fashion garment and share her secrets of recycling/upcycling clothes. Come and pick up some tricks. Free workshop.

We have one more workshop to announce on Sunday 15th April at the Arts Hub, but we are keeping it under our recycled hat until we have formally booked it. But it is an exciting wearable art artist.

If you are entering the Mystery Bag Challenge you are welcome to come to any of the workshops for assistance with your garment, we will have sewers at each event to assist.

Tickets to the Runway Show are for sale from Wednesday 18th April at $20 each or, if you have entered the Runway Mystery Bag Challenge you get your ticket for a discounted price of $10. Please do not hesitate to get in touch with Lynda if you have any questions about the event or the workshops. We really hope to see heaps of you over the next few weeks.

Around school this week

This morning we held the Investiture of this year's leaders, and what a wonderful occasion for our school. It was fantastic to have our 2017 leaders present to present badges and answer some questions about their time at secondary school to date.

Next Friday 16th March we are involved in the National Day of Action against Bullying and Violence. This will be a special day for us to reaffirm our pledge at Dunolly Primary School, to say NO! to bullying and violence. It has no role in our school or our community and we can't wait to share the day with parents, family, friends and community members from 12.30pm onwards. So please keep this date free.

We love to see our kids out in the community achieving great things: -

- Tyson Hoban competed at the Victorian State Championships for Karate
- Joe Lovel and Shenae Hunt will take part in the State Schools trials for cricket next week
- Issac Scott, Ben Raczynski and Ella Patten will compete in the Zone Swimming championships.
- Ella Patten has had numerous successful tournaments as part of the Maryborough Blazers U12 squad

So many sporting opportunities for kids in our area – karate, basketball, football, netball, soccer, horse riding, archery Just to name a few !

Cluster Cross Country

The Cluster Cross Country has been changed to the start of next term (Wednesday 2nd May). With the Bendigo event not until May it makes more sense to hold it closer to that date so the students maintain their running stamina. The sausage sizzle planned for that day will now be held on Friday 16th March as part of the National Day of Action against Bullying and Violence.

Please use the same order form that we sent home previously.

Uniting Church News

This week we have Pastor Rob Dalgleish, a visiting pastor, to lead us in prayer and song for our service at 9.30am.

Our rehearsals are after Church on a Sunday for our 'ALIVE' cantata which is performed on 1st April.

The op-shop has its special sale of $5 a bag for all summer clothes at the moment, so come and see what fits you or your children on our racks. Our op-shop has many lovely things in it and is worth a browse through.

It is open Tuesday 10am to 2pm. Then when it is shut you can stay for Bible study which starts at 2.15pm taken by our pastor Joan Hall. Thursday and Friday it is open 10am to 4pm.

Maundy Thursday

29th March, 2018, at 7:30pm

Dunolly & District Uniting Church

A "Tenebrae" Service will be held at 7:30pm.

The service of Tenebrae, meaning "darkness" or "shadows," has been practised by the Church since medieval times. Tenebrae is a prolonged meditation on Christ's suffering.

Readings trace the story of Christ's passion, music portrays his suffering, and the power of silence and darkness suggests the drama of this momentous day.

As lights are extinguished, we ponder the depth of Christ's suffering and death; we remember the cataclysmic nature of his sacrifice as we hear the overwhelming sound that "reminds us of the earthquake upon the death of the Saviour on the Cross;" and through the return of the small but persistent flame of the Christ candle at the conclusion of the service, we anticipate the joy of the ultimate victory over death.

This year the Easter Services will be as follows:

- Maundy Thursday – 29th March, at 7:30pm
- Good Friday – 30th March, at 9:30am.
- Easter Sunday- 1st April at 9:30am with the fabulous "Alive!" Cantata.

Please join us this year as we celebrate the "Resurrection of our Saviour, Jesus Christ"

Palliative care boost for MDHS

More people with a terminal illness in Central Goldfields Shire will be able to get the compassionate in-home palliative care and support they need, with additional funding from the Andrews Government.

Member for Western Victoria, Jaala Pulford, today announced Maryborough District Health Service would share in $3.86 million this year to improve access to community palliative care services for people living in rural and regional Victoria.

The Labor Government is investing more than $62 million in additional funding over five years to support more terminally ill Victorians to be cared for, and die, at home.

In 2017/18, this funding boost will provide home-based palliative care for additional 1,215 people and their families across country Victoria.

Ms Pulford said Maryborough District Health Service will receive $29,822 this year to expand its in-home palliative care services.

"We know most people want to die at home, close to family and loved ones. This boost will give people with a terminal illness in Central Goldfields Shire more support to be cared for at home," Ms Pulford said.

"Speaking from my own experience, local end-of-life care services make a real difference helping people make the most of every moment as their life draws to an end," she said.

"I'm very passionate about this issue and I'm immensely proud to be part of a Government that is supporting quality and compassionate end-of-life and palliative care that relieves pain and suffering, giving more people the support they need to die in their place of choice," Ms Pulford said.

The funding means more locals than ever can access high quality end-of-life care that relieves pain and suffering and provides empowering support to family, friends and carers, when they need it most.

In 2017/18, the Labor Government is also investing $1.25 million to establish a 24-hour expert palliative care advice line, $3.9 million for additional palliative care physician or nurse practitioner positions in Regional Palliative Care Consultancy Services and $10 million in grants for end-of-life auxiliary support services.

The Government has also delivered $5 million in equipment and infrastructure grants for community palliative care agencies to assist them to deliver care in people's homes.

The end-of-life auxiliary support services grant is available to a wide range of non-clinical informal and 'grass roots' ancillary organisations that are providing practical and timely support for people with life-limiting illnesses and their families and carers.

MAYORAL COLUMN

Do you live in a Tidy Town?

The 2018 Keep Victoria Beautiful Tidy Towns – Sustainable Communities Awards are now open.

These awards are an opportunity to recognise, highlight and celebrate what's great about our towns while acknowledging the hard work that has made your area special, sustainable and liveable.

Award categories include environmental sustainability, protection of the environment, litter prevention, active schools, resource recovery and waste management, young leaders, community actions and leadership, and more.

In mentioning Tidy Towns and taking pride in our beautiful region, it's timely to remind our residents to please ensure your property doesn't become unsightly and to remove any build-up of rubbish.

Unsightly properties, such as those littered with rusty machinery and cars, rotting mattresses, old tyres and other dilapidated and unused material, create a poor first impression of our region to visitors. Furthermore, no one wants to live (or work) beside an unsightly property.

As litter builds on a property it lessens the ability of owners to mow and maintain their yards, while creating a haven for vermin and snakes. What's more, as surrounding grass and vegetation grows longer and thicker, these properties can become a fire risk.

Council's Local Laws officers continue to make regular visual assessments of properties and issue clean-up notices to residents whose properties become eyesores. Where possible, Council will work with residents who have been issued a clean-up notice to resolve the problem.

If owners refuse to cooperate, Council will either take steps to enforce the clean up or (as a last resort) undertake the work itself, requiring the property owner to reimburse costs to Council.

While Council respects ratepayers' rights to use or enjoy their residential land, we must also ensure we keep the best interests of the broader community front and centre.

To find out more about the 2018 Keep Victoria Beautiful Tidy Towns – Sustainable Communities Awards and to enter online, visit www.kvb.org.au/tidy-towns. Entries for the awards close 19 March 2018.

New trails to be launched

On 21st March, I'm looking forward to attending the launch of two new trails in the Wedderburn area; the 6.8-kilometre Queens Gully Trail and eight-kilometre Blue Mallee Trail.

These trails, which take cyclists and walkers through some of the area's historic sites, while showcasing flora and fauna, will provide another fantastic outlet for residents and visitors to get out and enjoy our region's scenic environment.

The trails have been developed in partnership between Loddon Shire Council, DELWP, Wedderburn Tourism, Parks Victoria, Bush Heritage, Wedderburn Development Association and the Wedderburn community.

In addition to walking, the trails are designed to be family-friendly rides for mountain and hybrid bikes. Signage at the start of the trails provide its length as well as a QR code, which lets users download information about trail (including a map) directly to their smartphone.

The new trails complement existing tracks and trails located throughout the Shire in Boort, Bridgewater, Inglewood, Laanecoorie, Pyramid Hill, Serpentine and Tarnagulla.

More information regarding Loddon Shire's walking and cycling trails is available from www.loddon.vic.gov.au. Choose "Live" from the drop-down menu and then click on "Community facilities".

The launch of the Queens Gully and Blue Mallee trails will take place on Wednesday 21st March at 10.30am at the historic reservoir behind the caravan park, Butterick Lane, Wedderburn.

Duck season opening

With the opening of the 2018 duck hunting season starting on Saturday 17th March, Victoria's Game Management Authority is reminding hunters that bag limits remain at 10 birds per person per day. The hunting of the Blue-winged Shoveler is prohibited.

New times for the weekend have been introduced this year, that is, 9am on Saturday 17th March and 8am on Sunday 18th March. Hunting ceases half an hour after sunset for every day of the season, including the opening weekend.

Goulburn-Murray Water (GMW) is also reminding those taking part in the season to familiarise themselves with designated hunting areas at the water corporation's lakes, dams and reservoirs.

Visit the Victorian Game Management website at www.gma.vic.gov.au for more information on 2018 duck season arrangements and regulations.

For more information regarding hunting at GMW storages, including maps of designated hunting areas, visit www.g-mwater.com.au/recreation-tourism/duck-hunting

The 2018 duck hunting season runs for 12 weeks until Monday 11th June.

Friends of Kooyoora day

Join the Friends of Kooyoora for a Family Fun day on Sunday 18th March at the Melville Caves picnic ground area.

If you've never had the chance to visit the Kooyoora State Park or haven't been for a while, the Family Fun Day is a great opportunity to discover (or re-discover) Kooyoora.

Starting at 10.30am, the free day will include an Easter egg hunt, fun games and activities in the granitic boulders of Kooyoora State Park. Enjoy a BYO picnic in the picturesque surrounds before ending the day with a walk along one of the many walking tracks.

For further information and a link to book the event, visit www.loddon.vic.gov.au and click on the Events calendar under the "Visit" drop-down menu at the top of the page.

Midweek Pennant Grand Final Results 13th March 2018

Dunolly Blue won the mid-week premiership! Dunolly Blue 79 defeated Highland Tartan 63

H. Freemantle 23 d J. Turner 22,

M. Davies 22 lost J. Oliver 23,

L. Parker 34 d L. Wallis 18.

Dunolly has 3 out of 4 premierships for the Goldfields Bowls Edition.

Pennant Notes. The Maryborough Highland Tartan and Dunolly Blue Grand Final was a great spectacle. Plenty of supporters were in attendance and witnessed some great bowling. Leanne Wallis Highland and her teammates got away to a very good start, and by the 15 ends break lead by 6 shots. At the resumption of play, Dunolly, lead by skipper Loretta Parker, swung into high gear and completely outclassed Highland, scoring a mammoth 25 shots to 4, putting Dunolly in the box seat and ultimately a Grand Final win. Jeanette Oliver, although trailing by 5 shots managed to score 13 to 7 over the same period and win their rink by 1 shot. The third match between Dunolly's Heather Freemantle and Highland's Jan Turner was a beauty. Heather and her team could do no wrong in the first half and led comfortably by 11 shots. Highland dug deep, scoring 15 to 6 to lose by 1 shot. Although these two rinks cancelled each other out, the match belonged to Loretta Parker, Elaine Murphy, Greg Dobbin and Jim Smith with their great 16 shot victory, carried Dunolly Blue to another Premiership win.

Congratulations to Stella and Arthur Deason for winning the Weir Pairs.

Dunolly Bowling Club player Sheryl Howard has yet another accolade for this Bowls season. On Sunday Sheryl won the Central Victorian Regional Ladies Championship title to add to her Club Championship and the Goldfields Bowls Division Champion of Champions win. Sheryl will now go-on to compete at State level. Congratulations Sheryl and continue your good bowling form.

On Saturday 24th March, Dunolly will host the Central Victorian Region Saturday Pennant Championship. Premiership winners from Central Highlands Bowls Division and Ballarat District Bowls Division, will join with Goldfields Bowls Division winners, Dunolly Blue, to contest for the regional honours.

The 'B' grade club champion this season is Peter Waters. Peter played Frank D'Unieville on Monday afternoon in an entertaining contest.

Players are still needed for the club Hospital Day fundraising event this Saturday. The format is combined fours, that is any combination of Ladies and Men. The day will be sponsored by Phelan Funeral Services.

Western District Historic Vehicle Club, visit to Dunolly and Alvah Art Gallery

Ready to leave Moliagul heading to Melville Caves

On a very hot day, the Geelong Car Club came to the Central Goldfields to see what could be seen. Starting at Alvah Art Gallery and Car Showing, they came in their Classic Cars and enjoyed an hour looking at the art and cars while having a home-cooked morning tea, prepared by Kathy Moir. A good start for the day ahead - a tour of the town and area to the north of Dunolly, led by John Moir.

The first comment at the first stop at the court house was they did not know Dunolly had so many interesting and historic buildings.

The opinion about Dunolly's buildings was repeated a number of times as more streets were traversed before heading out to Moliagul and the Melville Caves

At the Melville Caves was another revelation for many, as the group went to the lookout, the cave and then on a climb up to the edge of the hill to where you look out to the West and North West, giving you very long views.

Returning to the cars, it was decided to drive straight on to Newbridge for lunch. This we did, arriving just after 1pm to be served a delightful lunch at the pub, supplied courtesy of the local football club. It was time to return to Dunolly and have another rest – the cars needed it as much as the drivers.

One of the most amazing outcomes was to learn that the chap who sold John the old 1917 Oakland pile of parts was actually in the group; and he could recognise one of the three engines (not restored and not to be used) that was in the large garage.

The group are travelling to Warrnambool next year. Some will be returning later this year to visit our area again.
