Movements in Town

Once again there are some major changes happening on Broadway

It is sad to witness the end of an era with the Craft Shop closing after ten years.

We will also be saying goodbye to Graham and Linda from Dunolly Nuggets and Treasures, who, thankfully will not be moving too far away.

However

We look forward to hearing what exciting new ventures are proposed for both of these historic buildings.

In addition to these new developments, the old service station site, where there is already movement afoot, is being rehabilitated to its former glory adding another usable space in Dunolly.

Watch this space!

Just another ordinary week in Australia—no disasters of note – the Donald met Kim Jung Un in Singapore—and then a young woman is killed on her way home from work.

I have the simplest mobile phone that is possible to own and Sister Ramble has an iPad and a smartish phone that she can contact Mrs Google with when she needs to. It was really funny watching her trying to set up something on my phone. It didn't change when she tried to do the swipe thing, and has no clever tricks. Gave it back in disgust with the comment "It's too simple" One for the Luddites!

Is it my imagination or are there more snippy, smart young women in ads for cars, chain saws and mowers these days?

Someone closely related to me came up from Geelong a couple of times, drove to Bendigo and did a few trips from here to Maryborough. When she went home she cleaned out her post box and found a notice from VicRoads telling her that her car registration was overdue. Very law-abiding lady nearly had a fit!

There are going to be 63,000 handmade poppies around the Australian War Memorial in Canberra in November to celebrate the end of WW1.

When I was going to bed the other night there was a strange clacking noise in the kitchen. Couldn't see anything out of order, so went to bed. Next day the same noise in the same place - six clacks and no visible cause. The third time it happened I noticed a blinking light on the hutch. It was the wireless door bell jigger (technical term for something you don't know the name of) letting me know that the battery was low. So glad it wasn't some giant insect eating the house.

LETTERS TO EDITOR

Dear Editor

The Dunolly Queen's Birthday Festival

This was such a successful weekend with a delightful abundance of sunshine, visitors and laughter in the town. The Savoy Opera company staged a dazzling and lively production of The Gondoliers to a large audience. That night, we packed the Railway Hotel and everyone enjoyed a splendid meal.

On Sunday, visitors enjoyed coffees and cakes at the acclaimed Dunolly Bakery. The St John's Anglican Church Service with Bishop Matt, was filled to capacity. The Sullivan Hymns were enthusiastically sung by the combined choirs of the Anglican and Uniting Church singers. The Church ladies did a magnificent job with the supper and the glorious flower display.

On Sunday afternoon, fifty-five people, including Louise Staley MP, attended the Heidelberg Choral Society performance. This concert was very well-received and was a highlight. Unfortunately, the modest house didn't cover our costs, but it was certainly an artistic success.

On Monday morning, the Rene Fox Gardens rang with children's laughter at the cardboard creative fun – Cardboardia, with the two boats being gleefully destroyed in the mock battle.

The featured show for the Festival was our local performance of the Follies. We had a large audience of delighted locals, and it was wonderful to hear so much laughter. One of the highlights was the visit by Mike Whittle who sang his heart-rending ballad "The last man from Dunolly". It was fabulous of the SES and the CFA to take the time to wear their outfits and come up on stage in the final number. That was a highlight for me.

Many months of rehearsal went into preparation for this Festival. We received a grant of $2000 from the Regional Centre for Culture, and used our existing costumes to keep costs down. Inevitably, there are expenses towards creating events such as this. Our festival cost $5400 and the box office, with Grant income, came to $4500. We made a conscious decision to lower the admission cost of the Follies to $20 to make it easier for locals to attend. We want to ensure that everyone who wishes to come to our shows is able. It is hard to keep the balance. Our membership is only $5 and we pay insurance and music costs with our box office. Our little theatre company makes every effort to make it accessible for all – both for performers and audience.

Keep in touch and we will always find a way to help you join in and see our productions. We extend a huge thank you to all of you for supporting our local theatre, and for showing off the town to such public acclaim.

Dear Editor

Following the number of letters about our kangaroo numbers and the hazards involved, Fred Davies has given us some interesting information on the possible reasons for the large kangaroo population in our area. Apparently some quite large kangaroos were transported from the Great Sandy Desert in Western Australia at least 35 years ago, apparently to prevent interbreeding among the small number of roos in the area. That's when a very tall kangaroo with distinctive markings was first sighted on Fred's property. At least 6ft tall, grey with a white belly and narrow black eyes, it was quite distinctive and seen many times over the years. These large kangaroos gradually produced bigger and bigger progeny and of course the numbers multiplied. Fred calls his particular one Super Roo and has sighted over 60 of them in the bush paddocks.

DUNOLLY CWA UPDATE

Dunolly Branch CWA

At our last meeting on Monday 4th June, we settled a number of outstanding issues.

The Group Craft Exhibition, which was due this year will now be held in 2019.

Lyn Fleming from Ballarat will be our interim Group President until the February Conference next year. Leanne Mullan and Jan Watts attended the State Conference in St. Kilda in May, and gave us a joint report. As usual there was a large number of CWA members from all over the State, and a lot of business was done.

The State Conferences are a real eye opener to the work done by the association, and the influence it has.

We have been invited to a Friendship Lunch by Maryborough branch on Tuesday 10th July.

We have the Senior Citizens rooms booked for the Conference on Tuesday, 21st August, and everything else is almost in place. We will need goods for the trading table.

Joyce Vater gave our International report on the lovely crafts of Peru — textile patterns are special to each village and made into ponchos, blankets and scarves. They have been making lovely pottery and carved gourds for hundreds of years.

The flower competition was won by Rosemary Mecredy, with Heather Weir second. The item competition was for "something I made in May" and it looked as though most members had been busy with craft.

Next meeting is on Wednesday 4th July — Competitions are a flower and a mystery item.

New touring opera company performing in Tarnagulla

An exciting new theatre company is coming to Tarnagulla's Victoria Theatre on Saturday 30th June at 2pm with Mozart's Opera Don Giovanni.

This popular opera will be performed in the manner of the old colonial-era touring theatre companies. The Melbourne-based opera singers will perform in Victorian-style costumes made by local seamstress Kimberley Barnham.

The narration of the opera will be by Madame Carandini, the once famous soprano who performed in Dunolly in June 1861. I am delighted to be part of the production playing the role of Madame Carandini. William Lyster and Madame Carandini were well known in the Goldfields in the 1860's

More information on Mozart's Don Giovanni production

Mr Lyster's grand touring opera presents Mozart's Don Giovanni.

GBD productions pays tribute to the great days of touring opera with this homage to the Lyster company which played at Tarnagulla in the gold-rush days. Mozart's masterpiece Don Giovanni is performed by the acclaimed cast including Michael Lampard in the title role, Jamie Moffat, Kerry Gill, Allegra Giagu, Helen Koehne, James Young, James Macaulay and Reg Ellery, with a special appearance by Rachel Buckley as our host narrator. This tale of love, revenge, murder and the supernatural has lasted centuries and will be played in full under the masterful musical direction of Pamela Christie, in this special nod to the Victoria Theatre's past. Weird Terminologies from the past

Us older people have been used to hearing some weird terminology. Have you ever wondered how they originated? Just to keep the grey matter tuned-up here we go.

Where did piss-poor come from?

In days gone by people used urine to tan animal hides hence the family would pee into a pot. When it was full they would take the pot to a tannery and sell the urine; hence, if you had to do this, you were termed piss poor.

But worse than that were the people who did not own a pot, thus they were known as not having a pot to piss in.

So the next time you are washing your hands and complain that the water is not hot enough, spare a thought about how things used to be.

Many centuries ago most people got married in June because they took their annual bath in May. Just in case you did not smell very well, the bride carried a bouquet of flowers; hence began the custom of carrying flowers at the wedding.

Baths consisted of a big tub filled with hot water.

The man of the house had the privilege of the nice clean water, followed by all the other males in the house, then came the females and finally, the baby. By then the water was pretty dirty, thus a baby could be easily lost. Hence the saying don't throw the baby out with the bath water.

Houses had thatched roofs, thick straw piled high with no wood or ceiling underneath. It was the only place for small animals to get warm and for the mice, rats and bugs to live.

This posed a real problem in the bedroom where the bugs and droppings would fall onto and mess up the nice clean bed. Hence, bed posts had a sheet over the top to afford some protection.

When it rained the roof became slippery and sometimes the animals would slip and fall off. Hence the saying it's raining cats and dogs.

As most floors were just dirt, the poor people were known as dirt poor as only the wealthy could afford slate.

In the winter it was difficult to keep the floor dry, so you had to spread threshed straw in order to keep your footing. If it was a really wet winter, the poor people just kept spreading straw, but when you wanted to go outside, the straw just slipped out the door; thus a piece of timber was placed in the door way. Hence, a thresh hold.

In old days, all food was cooked in a big pot that hung over the fire. Every day the fire was lit more vegetables were added to the pot as they could not afford meat. The left-over stew was left in the pot, and reheated the next day. As the stew remained in the pot for days on end the rhyme, "Peas porridge hot, peas porridge cold, peas porridge in the pot nine days old."

When visitors called, the housewife would hang up the bacon. It was a sign that the man could bring home the bacon. To celebrate, pieces of bacon would be cut off and handed around, hence the saying, "to sit around and chew the fat."

Getting quite an education aren't you?

Keep an eye out for more useless information.

Keep smiling. It gives your face something to do!

Boomerang Bags Workshop

You are invited to join in the Goldfields Sustainability Group's workshop to make Boomerang Bags on Saturday 23rd June from 1pm to 3pm.

The idea for Boomerang Bags came from a group of keen individuals from Burleigh Heads in Queensland, who set out to reduce the use of single use plastic shopping-bags by providing a "borrow and bring back" model for shopping-bags. Over the last 5 years, 300 Boomerang Bag groups have sprung up around the country. The original "borrow and bring back model" has been broadened and the aim now is to personally gift a volunteer made Boomerang Bag to someone as a starter for raising awareness about the message of reusing shopping-bags. Reuse is also a part of the construction of the Boomerang Bags themselves, with the materials used to make the bags being either second-hand or donated. The Goldfields Sustainability Group has decided that making and distributing Boomerang Bags is most appropriate at a time when supermarkets are phasing out single-use plastic bags.

The Maryborough Education Centre has kindly provided their Trade Skills Centre as the venue for the Boomerang Bag workshop. Those wishing to attend should meet in the school car park nearest the Trade Skills Centre.

You can attend and join in the hands on 1 – 3 pm workshop by;

- 1) bringing material to make your own bags
- 2) making bags for use by Maryborough Street harvest program
- 3) making a donation and using the GSG provided materials for your own bags

Please contact Brian Park on 54614281 for more information or read more about Boomerang Bags on the website www.boomerangbags.org

Travels with Cynthia

Having perused Liz's notes on our travels I am now reverting to the start of our adventure as things have jogged my memory which I had forgotten. Starting off on the first leg to the United States, our plane was scheduled to leave at 1.30am which to us was an exciting time to fly off. Andy (brother/husband) took us out for a most delectable dinner at a very smart restaurant, where I felt a little out of place in my travelling clothes, but Liz always looked smart, no matter where. We arrived at the airport at about 11pm and it seemed very sophisticated, sitting in the lounge drinking red wine, waiting for our plane in the small hours.

We discovered that a large number of passengers were Olympic officials and the Olympic rowing team was heading for the Games in Los Angeles, and the flight turned into a party, with jokes and songs and some of them donning stewards' aprons and serving the drinks. That certainly made the flight go fast; and what a fun way to start a holiday!

After our time in San Francisco, we flew to New York, Denver being our only stop. Arriving at midnight, we expected huge activity in: "The City that Never Sleeps", but were most surprised at the lack of crowds and non-stop traffic. When we arrived at the Waldorf, we hastily changed and rushed down to the famous Harry's Bar, only to find they were serving last drinks. That was certainly a letdown.

However, the next day when we sallied forth and found a breakfast bar on Lexington Street, we set off in whatever direction our legs would take us and found ourselves on 5th Avenue there were certainly crowds a-plenty here. To our amazement, next thing we ran into Mary Anne, an Australian friend who was living in Paris, but had work in New York. She was on her way to the Waldorf to pick us up. Who would have thought anyone could have such a chance meeting, on 5th Avenue of all places!

Mary Anne joined us for a drink at the Plaza outdoor café which is opposite Central Park and then we headed off to the Metropolitan Museum. But here there was a hitch. I had been wearing new shoes and blisters had developed and instead of immediately gazing at the wonders of modern art, I had to send Liz off to buy a band aid. A bit of an anti-climax! Footwear haunted me constantly and everywhere we went I bought new sandals, until finally, when in Florence I found the ultra comfortable walking sandals which took me everywhere from then on.

Thinking about that first outdoor café, Melbourne had not developed much in that direction, so it was a novel experience sitting out on the sidewalk as it was called, behind a little glass wall and watching the world go by. In New York you see every kind of person in dress and nationality and predominant were the young black men carrying 'ghetto blasters' on their shoulders, which certainly blasted our ears with the loud music.

There was one scary moment while walking up 2nd Street, when I heard a voice behind me saying what I thought was, "Your bag please ma'am". We had been warned about bag-snatchers, so I grabbed tightly to the handle on my bag and dragged Liz into a shop arcade, only to see a large man carrying a plank on his shoulder and what I heard as 'bag' was 'back'. Silly me.

Ah! New York, New York.

Queen's Birthday Honours recognition

Congratulations to Ian McPherson from Eddington and Mark Gilmore from Kingower on being recognised as part of the Queen's Birthday 2018 Honours List.

Mr McPherson is the recipient of a Medal of the Order of Australia for his services helping disadvantaged youth and dedication to golf, including founding chairman of the Tee-Up For Kids Foundation.

Mr Gilmore, who received the prestigious Australian Fire Services Medal, has given 40 years of service to the CFA and Forest Fire Management in Victoria and is the CFA Operations Manager (Regional Commander) for the Loddon Mallee region.

Well done to both Mr McPherson and Mr Gilmore on this well-deserved recognition.

Pick My Project closing soon

A reminder that applications for the Victorian Government's community grants initiative, Pick My Project, closes on Sunday 24 June 2018.

'Pick My Project' gives community members the chance to suggest, and decide on, ideas that will make their community a better place to live. All Victorians aged 16 years and over have the chance to submit project ideas for consideration.

As mentioned previously, 'Pick My Project' is a great opportunity for our community-members to work with Loddon Shire (and the State Government) to try and secure funding for your favourite local idea or project that may not come under other grant programs.

Ideas could focus on funding for sport and recreation activities, improving health and wellbeing, innovation, arts and culture, and ideas that improve our community and bring people together.

Once you have your idea, you then need to partner with an eligible organisation, such as a community group, school or Loddon Shire before you submit your idea.

Community members will decide on their favourite ideas by voting (giving local residents the first and final say on the best way to improve their local area), with winning ideas receiving funding. Winning projects will be announced in September 2018.

Projects between $20,000 and $200,000 are eligible for the program, with a total of $30 million allocated for Pick My Project to fund community ideas around the state.

To find out more visit www.pickmyproject.vic.gov.au

Find out your household's energy use

If you're worried about your energy bills, are buying, selling or renovating a home, notice that your house gets too hot in summer and freezing in winter – then it could be worth taking part in the Scorecard program.

Supported by the Victorian Government, Scorecard is Australia's first home energy-rating program for all Victorians.

Under the program, householders can arrange for an accredited assessor to come to their home and assess how they can improve their home to use less energy. The price of the assessment will vary depending on the assessor, your home and the complexity of the assessment.

The assessors use the government-supported Scorecard web-tool to rate the energy efficiency of the home's construction, fixed appliances and other key features such as solar PV energy production.

A two-page rating certificate recommends upgrade options to improve the home's rating (matched to the circumstances of the householder and features of the home).

For more information, including a list of accredited commercial assessors and not-for-profit organisations that offer assessments, visit the Scorecard website www.victorianenergysaver.vic.gov.au/scorecard

Poetry

The Fire Rages Down the Hill

There's the blurred and musty air
Of a fermented wine
The dust has settled on the place
If only it were mine
But there the droning bees live more
Their humming fills the air
Along the tracks the scuttle bugs
Are indifferent and don't care.

The fire rages down the hill
Flames rising in the night
Rising up higher in the sunshine
Yet the flame's burning bright
All the forest seems standing still
Till the fire rages low
And smoke now covers the hill
Beyond the old windmills spin.

There is no comfort round the home
As the fire noise murmurs low
Till now at last the flames burst out
Searing heat high and slow
The scorching flame rages down
Destroying all in its sight
Just ashes remain in the town
In the bushfire's spite.

P/1/2 EXCURSION

A huge thanks to Mrs P and Mr Hutchins for organising a wonderful experience day at the Melbourne Museum to consolidate all their learning. Despite some early nerves, (mainly from parents), the students had a wonderful time. I know it can be hard when they head off on excursions but rest assured, we conduct extensive planning to ensure all students are safe and have a wonderful time. It's important you reassure your child that it's ok to feel nervous about new experiences, it's ok to miss you during the time away, but they will have a great time and you'll be there to pick them up afterwards to hear all about their great day.

CURRICULUM DAY

Tomorrow, Dunolly staff will be joined by staff from Talbot and Carisbrook primary schools to learn more about the VCOP writing strategy we are implementing. We look forward to a great day of learning. Students aren't required at school tomorrow.

MEC EXPERIENCE DAY

All year 5 and 6 students will head off to MEC on Monday for an experience day. This day is coordinated by MEC to give all students the experience of a secondary school whether they intend on going on to MEC or not. All forms should have been returned. This is part of our transition program for our senior students.

LIGHTNING PREMIERSHIP

This activity is organised to give students who don't play sport a chance to experience something new. Many students over the years have gone on to take up the sport they've tried at LP. Parents are welcome to go along to support on the day. A reminder – PLEASE DO NOT PROVIDE OTHER STUDENTS WITH FOOD OR DRINKS ON THE DAY. We promote healthy eating and encourage students to fuel up on energy food such as bananas and hydrate with water, not consume lollies or sugary drinks. Thank you for your cooperation.

We look forward to a great day of competition.

PFA NEWS

Next Meeting – Wednesday July 18th at 9am in the library. New members welcome.

Fundraising – We could not draw the raffle at assembly this morning as planned, due to only having received half of the raffle books back.

All raffle books need to be returned ASAP – even if you have not sold any tickets (this is a legal requirement).

The raffle will now be drawn next week.

Canteen News

Please note that there are no more canteen days this term. Thank you to the families who helped in the canteen this term. Your assistance is very much appreciated. We will require volunteers to assist in the canteen again next term. If you are able to help please let Tracey know before the end of term, so that next term's roster can be finalised and sent home at the start of term.

WR - Round 8

Football

U11.5

Well done to the U11.5 who are improving consistently. Ben Racaynski and Riley Murphy each kicked a goal. Well done boys. Looking forward to Avoca.

Greg Crumpton

U14.5

Tough day out against a great side. Our core group continued a gut-running effort, pushing out a solid four quarter performance. There were great glimpses of what this team is capable of, with some fast and impressive plays throughout the game. With a couple more numbers this team could do great things.

Grant Raven

Thanks to Beau Roy-Clements and Jayden McDonald for umpiring each week.

Reserves

The Reserves started slowly and took a while to find their rhythm after a week off. We conceded 10 goals in the first half before a half-time rev-up got the boys going. We restricted the Rovers' goal-scoring in the second half and booted 6 of our own. Bobby Johnson and Craig Gloury were our multiple goal-scorers. Shane Lench was best on ground.

Round 8 - Dunolly V Maryborough Rovers

Netball

Under 11s

Our under 11s play at the Maryborough complex each week and had a fantastic win, 19-0. What a game team! Charlotte Smith and Charley Martin took home the incentives.

Under 13s

Rovers have very strong junior teams this year so our girls knew they were up against a massive challenge. That didn't stop them from trying their best every quarter and never giving up. Final score Dunolly 8 to Rovers 42. Incentive went to Alyssah for a great game.

Under 15s

In a similar fashion, the under 15s also had a rough day at the office with the Rovers' girls being too strong. Final score - Dunolly 6 to Rovers 50. Incentive went to Holly for doing everything that her coach asked of her.

Under 17s

Dunolly enabled Rovers to get a jump on them early in the first quarter going up by 7 at quarter time. Dunolly played consistently, although couldn't quite match the height and speed of Rovers who pushed out their margin each quarter. Final score - Dunolly 23 to Rovers 40. Sherridan and Lara received the incentives this week.

C Grade

The C graders welcomed back B and Stace into the team this week, returning from injury! The first quarter started off quite scrappily from both teams, but Dunolly were able to surprise Rovers with Dunolly up by 1 at the first break. The second quarter was much the same, although Rovers were able to switch the margin and be up by 1 at half time. Dunolly 'dropped their bundle' in the third quarter and Rovers capitalised on this.

Despite winning the last quarter, the Dunolly girls couldn't make up the margin from the third. Final score - Dunolly 35 to Rovers 43.

The incentive this week went to Shelby for a strong and accurate game in goals.

B Grade

With 4th vs 11th, the B graders were ready to face a tough challenge with the first quarter relatively even. Rovers were up at quarter time and Dunolly made a few positional changes in the second which worked for them, going up by 3 at half-time. An even quarter in the third meant all Dunolly had to do in the last was keep possession and convert their centres. And that they did! Final score - Dunolly 36 to Rovers 34. Incentives this week went to Caitlin for a superb game in goals, confident with strong hands until the final whistle. Brookie D earned the second incentive for her cool-headedness through the Centre.

A Grade

What a game! After starting the season strongly, the A grade girls have suffered some disappointing setbacks over the last couple of weeks. The first half of this week's game continued in that trend with Rovers being able to push their lead out to 16 at half time. Well, that's where that stopped! In the most gutsy game of netball many spectators had watched for a long time, the girls played for each other, their coach and for the team. With 30 seconds left on the clock and Dunolly down by 1, Demcy took a crucial intercept and the goalies converted to level the scores. With around 5 seconds left the ball made it into Dunolly's goal ring, but not before the timer went off. In the end, a draw! Absolutely inspirational! Well done girls! Final score Dunolly 46 to Rovers 46. Demcy received the first incentive for pulling out all stops in the dying seconds, with Ashlee M right behind her. Rough diamond awards went to Lara and Hannah for pulling 3 points when it counted.

With 8 rounds down and half way through the season the teams are placed on the ladders as follows:

Under 11s – 4th
 Under 13s – 8th
 Under 15s – 11th
 Under 17s – 5th
 C Grade – 10th
 B Grade – 9th
 A Grade – 6th

Fierce competition between husband and wife Shirley and Tiger Coburn with equal points. Three wins for Shirley Coburn, Tiger Coburn and Betty Lovel. Tiger was playing exceptionally well.

The next-best team with two wins was Garry Coburn, Gordon Smith, Pam Brightwell and Ian Lovel.

Next week is our supper night after play.

Wal Richards to be celebrated at upcoming exhibition

For the first time in 20 years, works from renowned local wedding photographer Wal Richards are going on public display at the Central Goldfields Art Gallery.

The Central Goldfields Shire, in collaboration the Maryborough Midlands Historical Society, presents the exhibition Wal Richards – Wedding Photographer.

This display takes a fresh look at the unofficial wedding photographer's sentimental journey into black and white wedding photography of the late 1940s to 1960s before the introduction of colour photography in the 1970s through to the 1990s.

The exhibition focuses on fashion, portraiture, bridesmaids, bridal and after parties, flowerchildren and of course, the brides.

In previous years, the Richards family have donated over 20,000 black and white and colour wedding photographs to the Maryborough Midlands Historical Society. Many of these photos make up the upcoming exhibition, which launches on Saturday 23 June.

From 1946 to 1996, Wal would ride his bicycle to weddings around the Maryborough district to document the momentous occasions.

Central Goldfields Shire Chief Administrator Noel Harvey said that many local couples will remember Wal photographing their weddings.

"Wal Richards loved attending weddings as the unofficial photographer. Everyone in Maryborough and surrounds seems to know Wal or know about him but it is his photos that speak volumes," he said.

"This will be a fantastic exhibition that will deliver a fascinating insight into weddings of yesterday. Everyone should come and see this excellent display. You never know, you might even find your own photo there."

The exhibition will be launched on Saturday 23 June at 2pm before closing on Sunday 29 July.

The Central Goldfields Art Gallery is open Thursday to Sunday, 10 am to 4 pm and is located in the Old Fire Station in Neill Street, Maryborough.

'Sense of Place' project with Deborah Halpern

A great start was made on the 'Sense of Place' project last Wednesday and Thursday with Deborah Halpern guiding us in the process. A few drawings have been selected, scaled up and cut out of our cool-room panels, so we are now sealing the edges with riveted flashing. We aim to finish this by the time Deborah comes up for her next session with us, when we will begin the tiling.

In the meantime, anyone who wants to help can come to the Ministry of Fun on Saturday 23rd June, 1pm-4 pm and Thursday 28th June 10.00am - 3.00pm to keep things rolling.

There's also some preparation for tile painting happening, so plenty to do!

Phone Anna, 0490077902, or send an email to:

if you need to know more!

Any updates should be on the Facebook page too!
